Chairil Anwar Boen Sri Oemarjati, 1972 The Voice of the Night Chairil Anwar, 1993 Chairil Anwar 1922 1949 was the primary architect of the Indonesian literary revolution in both poetry and prose In a few intense years he forged almost single handedly a vital mature literary language in Bahasa Indonesia a language which formally came to exist in 1928 Anwar led the way for the many Indonesian writers who have emerged during the past fifty years This volume contains all that has survived of Anwar's writing It no longer needs the sort of introduction it did some thirty years ago when Burton Raffel first published English translations of Anwar's work Raffel now presents the complete poems and the small amount of surviving prose in new translations with new interpretations

The Blue-Eyed Enemy Theodore Friend, 2014-07-14 The Blue Eyed Enemy is a comprehensive account of the interwoven histories of the three major archipelago nations of the West Pacific during the years of the Second World War Theodore Friend examines Japanese colonialism in Indonesia and the Philippines as an example of recurring patterns of domination and repression in that region He depicts Japanese rule in Greater East Asia as expressive of the folly of the general who exhorted his troops to annihilate the blue eyed enemy and their black slaves At the same time he clearly shows where the return of Western power aimed at new links between conqueror and conquered or lords and bondsmen Throughout the work one encounters an infectious sympathy for those afflicted by imperialism and racism from whatever source at whatever time The book is based on documentary research in Japan Indonesia and the Philippines as well as in the United States and the Netherlands and on over one hundred interviews with major actors and key observers of the era The analysis balances an eclectic use of social science perspectives with a humanistic concreteness and leads to new understanding of leaders like Sukarno and Hatta Jose P Laurel and Benigno Aquino Sr and Generals Yamashita and MacArthur As comparative tropical history it elucidates the contrasting cultural traditions and political psychologies of Indonesia and the Philippines and explains why 1945 was a year of dramatic contrast reoccupation and revolution for the first country and liberation and restoration for the latter Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Sacred Language, Vernacular Difference Annette Damayanti Lienau, 2024-01-09 How Arabic influenced the evolution of vernacular literatures and anticolonial thought in Egypt Indonesia and Senegal Sacred Language Vernacular Difference offers a new understanding of Arabic's global position as the basis for comparing cultural and literary histories in countries separated by vast distances By tracing controversies over the use of Arabic in three countries with distinct colonial legacies Egypt Indonesia and Senegal the book presents a new approach to the study of postcolonial literatures anticolonial nationalisms and the global circulation of pluralist ideas Annette Damayanti Lienau presents the largely untold story of how Arabic often understood in Africa and Asia as a language of Islamic ritual and precolonial commerce assumed a transregional role as an anticolonial literary medium in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By examining how major writers and intellectuals across several generations grappled with the cultural asymmetries imposed by imperial Europe Lienau shows that Arabic as a cosmopolitan interethnic and interreligious language complicated debates over questions of indigeneity religious pluralism counter imperial nationalisms and emerging nation states Unearthing parallels from West Africa to Southeast Asia Sacred Language Vernacular Difference argues that debates comparing the status of Arabic to other languages challenged not only Eurocentric but Arabocentric forms of ethnolinguistic and racial prejudice in both local and global terms

Society and the Writer Gungwu Wang, Milagros Guerrero, David Marr, 1981

Modern Indonesian literature A. Teeuw, 2013-03-09 The history of this book dates back exactly 20 years When I first set foot on the shores of Indonesia in September 1947 I was amongst other things assigned the task of teaching Malay literature in an advanced teacher training course with the instruction to lay stress on modern literature This was easier said than done as very little had been written on the subject and few materials were available to me From this period I recall with great gratitude the regular and friendly contacts I had with Mr Sutan Takdir Alisjahbana who in many ways me with information and documentation helped The editors of the magazine Kritiek en Opbouw found my lecture notes on some pre war authors worth publishing These articles with an introduction on Bahasa Indonesia and some other additions were subsequently collected and published by Pembangunan under the title Voltooid Voorspel Completed Prelude Djakarta 1950 The little book sold fairly quickly but rather than publishing a new edition in Dutch the publisher was interested in bringing out an Indonesian adaptation. Much material was added the larger part of which had been collected by writing occasional reviews of Indonesian literary works for the Dutch newspaper Nieuwsgier in Jakarta. The text of the book was very conscientiously turned into Bahasa Indonesia by Anku Raihul Amar.

Indonesian Writing in Translation John M. Echols, 2009. This compilation of translations of modern Indonesian literature originated as a series of class exercises performed by some of my students at Cornell University as a part of the advanced Indonesian language class during the years 1952-1955. The selections have now been compiled primarily for use in a course on Southeast Asian Literature in Translation in an attempt to overcome to some extent the lack of available material. These are presented herewith in the hope that they may also be of interest to others concerned with or interested in comparative or Far Eastern literature. In addition to the selections translated by these students several poems which Messrs Burton Raffel and Nurdin Salam kindly sent me from Makassar have been included together with two translations by Professor Harry J. Benda of the University of Rochester. Indonesian literature since 1917 has indeed been a terra incognita for several reasons two of the most obvious being the inaccessibility of the material and the language barrier. Both of these are very slowly but gradually being broken down as a glance at James S. Holmes' Angkatan Muda: A Checklist of Writings in Western Language Translations in Indonesia 5 pp 462-72 will reveal. It is my hope that this anthology will assist in dispelling some of the ignorance which now inevitably prevails concerning modern Indonesian literature. With the appearance in June of the Atlantic supplement Perspective of Indonesia further opportunity will be given Americans and others to become acquainted with a sample of the literature of this area. In preparing this anthology I have often been reminded of a story probably apocryphal related about Einstein who shortly after his arrival in this country was asked to say a few words and replied that he would try to speak in English but if by chance he should slip back into German Dr Lindemann would translate him. I sincerely hope that none of the writers represented in this compilation has been translated. I cannot conclude without acknowledging the assistance of Idrus Nazir Djajadiningrat and Hassan Shadily in carefully checking many of the translations and of Mrs Tazu Warner secretary in the Department of Far Eastern Studies at Cornell University who performed an excellent job of typing the manuscript for reproduction and assisted in numerous other ways. Finally I wish to express my appreciation to the Jakarta publishing houses Balai Pustaka, Perpustakaan Perguruan Kementrian P. P. K. and Pustaka Rakjat for granting permission to reproduce these translations of their publications.

Spirit and Other Poems Chairil Anwar, 2019-10-25. Stylistically innovative Anwar's use of everyday Indonesian helped make that language more dynamic as it evolved in the postwar years. Thematically his poetry is intense, personal and emotional, given to hope, fury or anguish, sober reflection or wild fervour, playfulness or defiance. The poems resist easy interpretation but are direct, uncomplicated and expressive of their author's fierce individualism. In just a few pages Anwar can provoke, dismay, seduce and energize. It's not difficult to understand why he is still considered not only one of Indonesia's greatest poets but something of a national hero as well and a major influence down to the present generation of writers in the archipelago The Penguin Companion to Classical, Oriental & African Literature ,1969 The Penguin Companion to Classical, Oriental & African Literature David Marshall Lang,Donald Reynolds Dudley,1971 Classical and Byzantine Oriental entries and African entries Dictionary of Oriental Literatures 2 Dusan Zbavitel,2023-01-06 This book fills a long felt gap in Western literature by presenting a concise summary of practically all the literatures of South and South East Asia comprising India Pakistan Nepal Bangladesh Sri Lanka Myanmar Thailand Cambodia Vietnam Indonesia Malaysia and the Philippines Bijdragen tot de taal-, land- en volkenkunde van Nederlandsch-Indië ,2001 Literatur overzicht issued with v 95 The Poet in the World Denise Levertov,1973 Using the medium of prose the contemporary poet expresses her thoughts on the poet s craft and other writers National Language as Medium of Instruction Asian Association on National Languages.
