Challenge Of Postmodernism An Evangelical Engagement:

The Challenge of Postmodernism David S. Dockery,1995 This collection of essays seeks to define and examine the slippery issues related to postmodern thought While the authors find some elements of modernity worth keeping they contend that components of the premodern period are frequently more helpful for the church These essays do not represent a retreat from modernity but rather a recognition of its failure to fulfill what it has promised

The Challenge of Postmodernism David S. Dockery,1995-03-01 Learn how to reach a new generation in a rapidly changing world with the unchanging gospel

The Challenge of Postmodernism David S. Dockery,2001-06 Learn how to reach a new generation in a rapidly changing world with the unchanging gospel

Preaching Christ in a Postmodern Culture K. A. Beville,2010-04-16 Starting with some observations relating to shifts in ecclesiology and identifying them as a move beyond contextualization to syncretism this work goes on to assess the feasibility of preaching in a postmodern culture which rejects both the idea of absolute truth and authority used as power It traces the historical and philosophical development of postmodernism The Enlightenment project is deemed to have failed and Christianity is perceived as an oppressive metanarrative In a world that is becoming increasingly sceptical and where preaching practitioners are becoming disillusioned this book offers some guidelines about preaching to postmoderns In a relational age rationality is impotent but the author distinguishes between authoritative and authoritarian preaching allowing hope for the survival of the homiletic task Humility is presented as preferable to certitude and persuasion is redefined The author suggests using an inductive mode of communication as a means of engaging postmodern listeners He signposts a way forward in the labyrinthine complexity of the new paradigm and demonstrates that the homiletic task is still feasible Thus this book will be of interest to teachers and students of theology as well as pastors desiring to develop a new apologetic strategy

The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church Gerard Mannion,Lewis S. Mudge,2007-12-12 Written by an international team of distinguished scholars this comprehensive book introduces students to the fundamental historical systematic moral and ecclesiological aspects of the study of the church as well as serving as a resource for scholars engaging in ecclesiological debates on a wide variety of issues

Apologetic Preaching Craig A. Loscalzo,2000-03-14 Craig Loscalzo gives down to earth advice on how to communicate clearly and compellingly to a world that does not want to hear about morality sin evil judgment or commitment He gives straightforward explanations of the changes taking place all around us including brief sample sermons in each chapter

Who Is My Enemy? Rich Nathan,2011-05-24 Are You at War with Someone Jesus Loves Many Christians are We find it much easier to judge those outside the church than to love them Yet Jesus did not come to condemn the world but to save it It is time we took on his attitude of servanthood time to share not canned presentations but our hearts and lives Rich Nathan helps us understand how Tackling five knotty current issues he takes us inside the worldviews and street level realities of postmodernists New Agers homosexuals feminists and liberals in order to better understand them and to see beyond categories to real faces real needs and real hearts that long to be welcomed Nathan reveals both the errors that we must challenge and unexpected truths that will challenge us Most important he helps us to see individuals who long to experience the redemptive touch of Jesus through us Preaching to a Shifting Culture Scott M. Gibson,2004-08-01 The church in America is part of a changing culture and today s preachers must be prepared to engage the unique issues of our postmodern age Editor Scott M Gibson has skillfully combined the works of many well known preachers including Haddon Robinson and Bryan Chapell into one practical guide written for present and future church leaders Including questions for reflection and suggestions for further reading this helpful resource addresses important topics such as preaching to a postmodern audience pluralism and the intersection of preaching and psychology Preaching to a Shifting Culture is a must read for preachers It intensified my passion to preach Scripture it clarified for me some critical issues related to preaching and it triggered some ideas and strategies I will build into my preaching Steve Mathewson author of The Art of Preaching Old Testament Narrative A stimulating potpourri of evangelical insights for changing times Michael Quicke Charles Koller Professor of Preaching and Communications Northern Baptist Theological Seminary Timely and relevant this collection of essays thoughtfully explores the issues facing today s preacher and calls today s preacher to thoughtfully face the issues Patricia Batten pastor Village Baptist Church Kennebunkport Maine Those who are called to proclaim the Word in a contemporary setting will benefit from the analysis and suggestions offered in this outstanding collection Michael Duduit editor Preaching magazine

The Globalization of Pentecostalism Murray W. Dempster,Byron D. Klaus,Douglas Petersen,1999 This scholarly and engaging collection of essays examines the changes in academic disciplines features of the geographic regions and nuances of the cultural issues related to global Pentecostalism This book comprising a sweeping range of well documented articles on Pentecostal theology hermeneutics Missiology and the social sciences provides the student of Pentecostalism with a fresh insight into the issues and opportunities confronting Pentecostals as they head into the new millennium Here is a window of contemporary scholarship that discloses vigorous engagement with critical issues The editors have provided a resource that promises to stimulate further research and reflection The Deconstruction of Baudrillard Aleksandar S. Santrač,2005 Jean Baudrillard is one of the outstanding representatives both of French poststructuralism and postmodernism Because of radical criticism it was not possible for him to establish a logically coherent theoretical system the philosophical aspects of his work are specifically merged therefore into a critical asystematic fragmentarism which is the subject of this work From the critique of the political economy of the sign through critiques of rationalism reality progress truth history to the theory of simulation Baudrillard s specific para concepts fatal strategy symbolic exchange seduction hyperreality pataphysics etc are constantly fragmentarily present in the development of his thought These concepts are Baudrillard s attempt at disengagement from modern philosophy and his new unsystematic postmodern view of reality in general In the analysis of binary metaphysical oppositions reality simulation subject object knowledge seduction history end radical irrational nihilism metaphysics God pataphysics Baudrillard is radically exclusive through the arbitrary preference of one over the other concept his ideas it is possible to conclude that these dualistic antagonisms are also paradoxically compatible in his system this compatibility is very close to the irrational mysticism of this thinker This book is a clear and lucid presentation of this unique brand of postmodernism to English speaking scholarship      The Dispensational-covenantal Rift R. Todd Mangum, 2007 This groundbreaking study explores how the fight between dispensationalists and covenant theologians got started and how a unique dynamic of personalities and sociological factors enflamed it Readers may be surprised to discover that even the terminology of dispensationalists and covenant theologians originated in the 1930s disputes that the vast majority of the original protagonists on both sides were Presbyterians and that soteriology rather than eschatology was the original bone of contention between them This study examines how two respective strands of fundamentalism came to identify one another as theological rivals as they each vied for position in their recently formed separatist bodies The significance of disagreements over dispensationalism is explored in the founding of the Orthodox Presbyterian and Bible Presbyterian churches And then as the debate traveled southward the response of the PCUS is examined with special attention given to the consummative report of an ad hoc committee that found dispensationalism to be out of harmony with the Westminster doctrinal standards Significant misunderstandings that impeded fruitful dialogue from the beginning are clarified particularly those that have persisted most stubbornly to the present day Perhaps most surprising of all the reader will discover that nearly all of the original points of debate between dispensationalists and covenant theologians have since been resolved as each side has honed its position in light of pertinent critiques Why has this development gone almost unnoticed This study suggests an answer and proposes that understanding how the feud began may hold the key to rapprochement today      Beyond the Obvious James De Young, James B. DeYoung, Sarah Hurty, 1995      Postmodernizing the Faith Millard J. Erickson, 1998 The dean of evangelical theologians explores six evangelical responses both positive and negative to postmodernism      American Evangelicalism II Norris A. Magnuson, William G. Travis, 1997      The Evangelical Left Millard J. Erickson, 1997 Millard Erickson identifies practioners of a new theological movement in evangelicalism that he contends have adopted a postconservative position and have drifted from the fundamental affirmations of conservative evangelicalism      A Strategy for Reading Biblical Texts Johnson T. K. Lim, 2002 A Strategy of Reading Biblical Texts provides a fresh impetus to the ongoing debate of hermeneutics and methods in biblical scholarship by examining three core hermeneutical strategies These are author oriented text oriented and reader oriented approaches It also critiques the contributions and limitations of each strategy and argues for a hermeneutical strategy that takes into account the micro and macro biblical corpora Readers are challenged to apply basic hermeneutical protocols when reading biblical texts A theological reading of the biblical texts is crucial and vital because the Bible is a theological document This book also addresses some of the pivotal but nagging questions of meaning authority and the reader s context      The Narrative Asides

in the Book of Revelation Dal Lee, 2002-12-11 Lee applies methods of new literary criticism to the apocalyptic book of the Bible focusing on narrative asides which have recently begun to be studied in other books of the New Testament as well The study is slightly revised and updated from his doctoral dissertation for the Chicago Theological Seminary It does not provide a subject index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Theologians of the Baptist Tradition Timothy George, David S. Dockery, 2001 A resource for pastors students and teachers to discover Baptist contributions to Christianity's theological heritage      The Transforming Habits of a Growing Christian William D. Watkins, 2004 Watkins puts Christians on the road to developing life changing habits that enrich their love for God and their experience of God's love for them by encouraging them to embrace the spiritual disciplines including simplicity prayer study confession and service and make them part of everyday life      Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University.
