Chamber Plays:

The Chamber Plays August Strindberg, 2004 Strindberg called these five highly original late works from 1907 chamber plays to remind us of Beethoven's last quartets. Like the quartets they are intensely disciplined yet elliptical creations. Written for the Intimate Theatre founded with August Flack, they strive to reach elusive states of being. Strindberg breaks down for us the barriers between sensory perception and fantasy between real people and their self-projections between the living and the dead.

An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: The plays Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known. These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting. It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages. Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods. It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material. It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross-reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity. The bibliography is published in three parts. Volume 1 General Studies 978 0 947623 81 4 and Volume 3 Prose Poetry Miscellaneous 978 0 947623 83 8 are also now available. Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia, Norwich.
