Christian Jacq, 1939-12 Seeker of Knowledge James Rumford, 2003-06-23 In 1802, Jean-François Champollion was eleven years old. That year, he vowed to be the first person to read Egypt's ancient hieroglyphs. Champollion's dream was to sail up the Nile in Egypt and uncover the secrets of the past, and he dedicated the next twenty years to the challenge. James Rumford introduces the remarkable man who deciphered the ancient Egyptian script and fulfilled a lifelong dream in the process. Stunning watercolors bring Champollion's adventure to life in a story that challenges the mind and touches the heart.

Cracking the Egyptian Code Andrew Robinson, 2012 Cracking the Egyptian Code is the first biography in English of Champollion, widely regarded as the founder of Egyptology. Andrew Robinson meticulously reconstructs how Champollion cracked the code of the hieroglyphic script, describing how Champollion started with Egyptian obelisks in Rome and papyri in European collections, sailed the Nile for a year, studied the tombs in the Valley of the Kings (a name he first coined), and carefully compared the three scripts on the Rosetta Stone to penetrate the mystery of the hieroglyphic text. Robinson also brings to life the rivalry between Champollion and the English scientist Thomas Young, who claimed credit for launching the decipherment, which Champollion hotly denied. There is much more to Champollion's life than the Rosetta Stone, and Robinson gives equal weight to the many roles he played in his tragically brief life: from a teenage professor in Revolutionary France to a supporter of Napoleon, whom he met in exile and a curator at the Louvre. The Description of Egypt from Napoleon to Champollion Tamar Sarfatti, 2022-12-01 This book is the first study in English of the multi-volume set of texts and engravings of the Description of Egypt, a work produced following the three-year-long Egyptian campaign led by Napoleon Bonaparte in 1798. The book challenges the conventional and rather reductive interpretation of the Description that followed Edward Said's Orientalism as a summation of an orientalist colonial project. It re-centres the Description in the much more complex and dynamic political and intellectual world of France of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century and its colonial aspirations. It follows closely the notes, texts and illustrations of the contributors to the work, the majority of whom were graduates of the first years of the Polytechnic school in Paris and the well-documented editing process that continued for almost thirty years in which France moved from Revolution to Empire and Restoration. It shows the ways in which scholarly traditions and newly acquired skills interplay with Enlightenment texts, contemporary politics and received ideas about antiquity and how these were reinterpreted and modified in texts and illustrations through the encounter with the physical and social worlds of Ottoman Egypt. Using the rich repository of the Description of Egypt, the book demonstrates the contribution of antiquarian methods of research to the emerging disciplines of the social sciences.

The Linguist and the Emperor Daniel Meyerson, 2005-02-08. Recounts the story of the race between Napoleon and linguist Jean François Champollion to break the code of the Rosetta Stone from its discovery and the early efforts to secure it to the impact the stone had on the lives of everyone who encountered it.

The Riddle of the Rosetta Jed Z. Buchwald, Diane Greco Josefowicz, 2020-09-15. A remarkable intellectual adventure reaching from the filthy back streets of Georgian London to the hushed lecture rooms of the Institut de France from the forgotten byways of provincial France to the splendor of the Valley of the Kings, this book reveals the decipherment in its full historical complexity.

Philology and the Appropriation of the World Markus Messling, 2023-04-11. This book sheds new light on the work of Jean François Champollion by uncovering a constellation of epistemological, political and material conditions that made his decipherment of Egyptian hieroglyphs possible. Champollion's success in understanding hieroglyphs, first published in his Lettre M. Dacier in 1822, is emblematic for the triumphant achievements of comparative philology during the 19th Century. In its attempt to understand humanity as part of a grand history of progress, Champollion's conception of ancient Egypt belongs to the universalistic aspirations of European modernity. Yet precisely because of its success, his project also reveals the costs it entailed after examining and welcoming acquisitions for the emerging Egyptian collections in Europe. Champollion travelled to the Nile Valley in 1828-29 where he was shocked by the damage that had been done to its ancient cultural sites. The letter he wrote to the Egyptian viceroy Mehmet Ali Pasha in 1829 demands that excavations in Egypt be regulated, denounces European looting and represents perhaps the first document to make a case for the international protection of cultural goods in the name of humanity.

The Rosetta Stone and the Rebirth of Ancient Egypt John Ray, 2011-06-01. The Rosetta Stone is one of the world's great wonders, attracting awed pilgrims by the tens of thousands each year. This book tells the Stone's story from its discovery by Napoleon's expedition to Egypt to its current and controversial status as the single most visited object on display in the British Museum.
