Change And Tradition China And The Islamic Middle East:

Change and Tradition ,2004 Fear, Heterodoxy, and Crime in Traditional China Tommaso Previato,2024-06-24 This multi contributor volume examines the evolving relationship between fear heterodoxy and crime in traditional China It throws light on how these three variously interwoven elements shaped local policies and people s perceptions of the religious ethnic and cultural other Authors depart from the assumption that otherness is constructed stereotyped and formalized within the moral political and legal institutions of Chinese society The capacity of their findings to address questions about the emotional dimension of mass mobilization the socio political implications of heterodoxy and attributions of crime is the result of integrating multiple sources of knowledge from history religious studies and social science Contributors are gnes Birtalan Ayumu Doi Fabian Graham Hung Tak Wai Jing Li Hang Lin Tommaso Previato and Noriko Unno Politics and

Change in the Middle East Roy Andersen,Robert F. Seibert,Jon G. Wagner,2009 This edition presents an intensive update of facts figures and events It contains extensive discussion of democracy and contains an abundance of visual aids and maps

Modernization in the Middle East Cyril Edwin Black,Leon Carl Brown,1992 Written under the auspices of the Center of International Studies and the Program in Near Eastern Studies Princeton University The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East Mitri Raheb,Mark A. Lamport,2020-12-15 This work represents the current and most relevant content on the studies of how Christianity has fared in the ancient home of its founder and birth Much has been written about Christianity and how it has survived since its migration out of its homeland but this comprehensive reference work reassesses the geographic and demographic impact of the dramatic changes in this perennially combustible world region The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East also spans the historical socio political and contemporary settings of the region and importantly describes the interactions that Christianity has had with other major minor religions in the region Muslim Diversity Leif Manger,2013-10-18 The term local Islam has been coined to describe local responses to the effects of globalisation in the Islamic world All contributions to this volume present cases of local Islam as well as discussing the term itself But what all of this group of anthropologists and historians convey is a feeling of dissatisfaction with the very term Their uneasiness relates to the conceptual problems arising from seeing Islam as either local or global Rather the authors argue in favour of a focus not on Islam but on the lives of Muslims putting their lives into the context of complex historical developments Ranging across much of the vast extent of the Islamic world from West Africa and the Near East to China and Southeast Asia the contributions deal with the effects of migration on local Islamic traditions in Bangladesh conflicts between Muslim sects in Pakistan the development of jihad in West Africa the problem of maintaining a Muslim identity in China how Javanese Muslims combine their Islamic faith with belief in a local Javanese spirit world the comparison between urban and rural based Islam in Syria and in two studies from western Sudan issues of belief and broader aspects of identity management in a multi ethnic situation Undergraduate Announcement University of

Michigan--Dearborn,2001      Undergraduate Catalog University of Michigan--Dearborn,2006      The Atlas of Religion Joanne O'Brien, Martin Palmer, 2007-05-07 Locates the origin the heartland and the sacred places of each of the major religions and provides essential background about each including a valuable table showing the fundamental beliefs of Buddhism Christianity Daoism Hinduism Islam Judaism and Hikhism      Tradition, Change, and Modernity S. N. Eisenstadt, 1973-11-02      Comparative Perspectives on Social Change, 1968      Cultural Anthropology Raymond Scupin, 2002 For introductory courses in Cultural Anthropology This textbook serves as a useful introduction to cultural anthropology by integrating ethnographic material from around the world By drawing upon classic and recent research in the field this text reflects current state of the art understandings of social and cultural changes based on the interrelationships among different societies It demonstrates the diversity of different societies and cultural patterns yet at the same time reveals similarities in humans everywhere      Documents in World History: The great traditions, from ancient times to 1500 Peter N. Stearns, 1988      International Labour Documentation, 1965      Islam in Process Jóhann Páll Árnason, Armando Salvatore, 2006 The articles included in this Yearbook of the Sociology of Islam focus on two perspectives Some link the comparative analysis of Islam to ongoing debates on the Axial Age and its role in the formation of major civilizations while others are more concerned with historical constellations and sources involved in the formation of Islam as a religion and a civilization More than any other particular line of inquiry new historical and sociological approaches to the Axial Age have revived the idea of comparative civilizational analysis and channeled it into more specific projects A closer look at the very problematic place of Islam in this context will help to clarify questions about the Axial version of civilizational theory as well as issues in Islamic studies and sociological approaches to modern Islam Contributors include Said Arjomand Shmuel N Eisenstadt Josef van Ess and Raif G Khoury Each of the editors are sociologists who have widely published on related issues      A History Of The Modern Middle East William L Cleveland, 2000 This comprehensive work provides a penetrating analysis of modern Middle Eastern history from the Ottoman and Egyptian reforms through the challenge of Western imperialism to the Iranian Revolution and the Gulf War After introducing the reader to the region's history from the origins of Islam in the seventh century Cleveland focuses on the past two centuries of profound and often dramatic change While built around a framework of political history the book also carefully integrates social cultural and economic developments into a single carefully crafted account The revised and updated second edition of this benchmark text includes information on the Middle East since the close of the Cold War and a new section on civil society and Islamic politics in the 1990s      The Stockholm Journal of East Asian Studies, 2002      Conflict and Control in Late Imperial China American Council of Learned Societies. Committee on Studies of Chinese Civilization, 1975      The Government And Politics Of The Middle East And North Africa David E. Long, Bernard Reich, 1986-09-07 This fifth edition is the single most comprehensive and authoritative text for courses on the government politics and economics of the contemporary Middle East and North Africa      Sufism Lloyd V. J. Ridgeon, 2008 In recent years interest in Sufism often regarded as the mystical dimension of Islam has blossomed Taught in European and American universities for many years Sufism is an increasingly popular area of research in disciplines such as Islamic Studies comparative religion area studies anthropology history and politics In this new Routledge Major Work the editor a leading scholar in the field has gathered in four volumes the canonical and the very best cutting edge literature on Sufism to create an indispensable reference resource The collection focuses on origins and development hermeneutics and doctrines ritual authority and word and modern Sufism
