Cardinal Hume and the Changing Face of English Catholicism Peter Stanford, 1999-01-08 After the persecutions that followed the Reformation the Catholic Church that re-emerged in the 19th century was a defensive introspective one largely made up of working class immigrants and a handful of land owning families who kept the faith despite adversity It was viewed with some suspicion by the English Establishment as something foreign subversive to be held at arm's length But particularly after World War II a new generation of educated Catholics emerged outward looking questioning anxious to take their places in society Peter Stanford argues that Basil Hume's appointment was a symbol of change His very Englishness has exorcised some of the nightmares in the national subconscious about the Catholic Church And in his struggles as a leader with a flock that is not as obedient as once it was the cardinal has redefined English Catholicism by blending its traditional theological conservatism with a liberal pastoral practice The Changing Face of the World Hebe Spaul, 1955 The World's Changed Face Since 1945 Hebe Spaul, 1964 The Changing Face of the Third World József Nyilas, 1978
