Changing Places Womens Lives In The City:

Changing Places Chris Booth, Jane Darke, Susan Yeandle, 1996-09-28 This book offers a specifically feminist perspective on women's lives in contemporary cities one which the editors hope will sustain and influence women's ways of being in those cities The contributors offer an array of knowledge about women's place and women's places in cities today The book acknowledges women's positive as well as negative experiences in their roles as workers mothers housewives shoppers and members of social networks Women are not seen as passive victims of capitalism or of male violence although the realities of exploitation and the fear of crime are recognized

Sex and the Revitalized City Leslie Kern, 2011-01-01 When a recent wave of condominium development overtook Toronto women emerged as powerful consumers and reports claimed that home ownership was offering young single women freedom financial independence and personal security Sex and the Revitalized City examines the truth of these claims by exploring the phenomenon from the perspective of women condo owners and planners and developers This fresh perspective on urban revitalization reveals that condo ownership is not freeing women from constraints neoliberal ideologies are remaking women's relationship with the city in the image of fast capital and consumer citizenship Women's emancipation through condominium ownership is a marketing ploy rather than a major shift in gender relations

Reinventing the City? Head of Civic Engagement Dublin City University and Visiting Professor of Development Studies University of Liverpool and St Mary's University Nova Scotia Ronaldo Munck, 2003-01-01 Although Liverpool is the central theme of this book the author gives an informed comparative overview of the city in a worldwide context Chapters examine in detail the cultural social and economic legacy of the city

Italian Women and the City Janet Levarie Smarr, Daria Valentini, 2003 Studies of the city and of women's experiences of the city have focused primarily on modern times especially as modernism was defined in large part by urban life Italy however has a long history of urban centered culture and women have been a vocal part of that culture since the Renaissance This volume therefore looks at the art and literature of both earlier and more modern periods to investigate the meanings of the city for Italian women the intensely gendered meanings for both sexes of those city spaces that excluded women and the conditions that permitted a limited permeability of gendered boundaries Two aspects to the combination of women and city are salient to these investigations One involves their metaphorical relationship Urbs citta ville the words for city tend to be grammatically feminine and a long tradition of representation associates the city with a woman Women especially writers could exploit modify or resist the prevailing uses of such metaphors The second aspect of connection involves social realities What was or is the relation of the female city with the real women who inhabit it What kind of site has it provided for women seeking a satisfying life for themselves How has art and literature by men and by women represented the relationship of female persons or characters to urban spaces

Advances in Engineering Education in the Middle East and North Africa Mahmoud Abdulwahed, Mazen O. Hasna, Jeffrey E. Froyd, 2015-11-18 This book provides a collection of the latest advances in engineering education in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region and sheds insights for future development It is one of the first books to address the lack of comprehensive literature on undergraduate engineering curricula and stimulates intellectual and critical discourse on the next wave of engineering innovation and education in the MENA region The authors look at recent innovations through the lens of four topics learning and teaching curriculum development assessment and accreditation and challenges and sustainability They also include analyses of pedagogical innovations models for transforming engineering education and methods for using technological innovations to enhance active learning Engineering education topics on issues such as construction health and safety urban design and environmental engineering in the context of the MENA region are covered in further detail The book concludes with practical recommendations for implementations in engineering education This is an ideal book for engineering education academics engineering curriculum developers and accreditation specialists and deans and leaders in engineering education City-Region 2020 Joe Ravetz, 2016-05-13 Based on analysis of the Manchester city region this book offers a vision of a sustainable urban future through integrated strategic management of the entire city region It translates principles into practice for achieving the necessary balance to ensure a higher standard of living and safe environment The text presents a 25 year horizon for the evolution and restructuring of the urban system a focus for linkages and synergies between economic social and environmental sectors technical scenarios for land use energy and material flows spatial scenarios for each area and settlement type and lateral thinking on cultural information localization and globalization trends Also included are practical actions methods and tools such as sustainability indicators and appraisals that can be applied anywhere in the western world Women of Europe, Dossier ,1998

Changing Places William Meverell Loker, 2004 Changing Places describes and analyzes patterns of environmental and social change in a region of rural Honduras over a 15 year period 1983 1998 The people of this region were subject to economic dislocations caused by the construction of a major hydroelectric dam that flooded more than 6 000 hectares of mostly agricultural land In addition residents have been forced to adapt to broader processes of rapid social and economic change associated with globalization over the same period these responses include increased rates of employment in maquiladora plants and migration to the U S The book examines the environmental consequences of the dam the response of local people to dam induced changes the ecological effects of changing land use patterns and the challenges to local livelihoods posed by globalization Loker looks at the failure of post dam resettlement as well as subsequent environment and development projects in the region and presents an analysis of the role of structural power social capital and community divisions in frustrating development efforts Changing Places examines both the social and environmental dimensions of the intersection between the local and the global The book will be of interest to scholars and professionals in a variety of fields including anthropology geography environmental studies international relations international development policy students of globalization and global environmental problems deforestation species loss and those interested in Latin America generally
