Waiting for the Cool Moon Wendy Matsumura,2023-12-22 In Waiting for the Cool Moon Wendy Matsumura interrogates the erasure of colonial violence at the heart of Japanese nation state formation She critiques Japan studies role in this effacement and contends that the field must engage with anti Blackness and anti Indigeneity as the grounds on which to understand imperialism colonialism fascism and other forces that shape national consciousness Drawing on Black radical thinkers critique of the erasure of the Middle Passage in universalizing theories of modernity s imbrication with fascism Matsumura traces the consequences of the Japanese empire s categorization of people as human and less than human as manifested in the 1920s and 1930s and the struggles of racialized and colonized people against imperialist violence She treats the archives safeguarded by racialized colonized women throughout the empire as traces of these struggles including the work they performed to keep certain stories out of view Matsumura demonstrates that tracing colonial sensibility and struggle is central to grappling with their enduring consequences for the present

Adult Education in the Rural Context: People, Place, and Change Jeffrey A. Ritchey,2008-04-11 Although there has recently been a relative abundance of material produced on adult education in rural areas outside the United States little work has been done that focuses on the changing nature of rural adult learning and instruction in the States Such neglect however does not suggest that rural issues and rural places lack relevance in contemporary U S society This volume seeks to expand our concept of the rural United States as it explores the role that adult educators might play in this complex context Indeed complexity is the hallmark of this volume Although rural areas are still composed of large expanses of open space a continuing process of suburbanization is resulting in demographic economic and cultural changes that challenge those teaching and learning in rural places This is the 117th volume in the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education an indispensable series that explores issues of common interest to instructors administrators counselors and policymakers in a broad range of adult and continuing education settings such as colleges and universities extension programs businesses libraries and museums

Encountering Aboriginal Languages William McGregor,2008 Natural Resources Management Rules and Practices in a Context of Legislative Changes in North Central, Namibia Gwladys Mathieu,2005 Religious and Theological Abstracts ,1995 English in Africa ,2000 Mining Memory Mary Beth Tierney-Tello,2017-01-23 Every major Peruvian author of the twentieth century has written a narrative focused on childhood or coming of age Mining Memory argues that Peruvian narratives of the twentieth century re imagine childhood not only to document personal pasts but also to focus on national identity as a dynamic and incomplete process Mining Memory shows how 20th century narratives and films reimagine the self and the nation by representing child and adolescent protagonists and their evolution using the remembrance of childhood as part of a nation making project The book demonstrates how in the context of Peru fictions focusing on childhood become vehicles for the national reimagining and collective remembering central to much of Latin American literature The figure of the child as emblem of both a collective memory and an always deferred utopian project holds special promise for twentieth century Peruvian writers as they write from a national context rife with cultural racial and political conflict The book intervenes in debates internal to Peruvian cultural studies as well as wider conversations in Latin American Studies and post colonial studies Mining Memory provides a new understanding to both the Latin American and Anglo American traditions regarding the representations of national subjectivities through the voices of the child and adolescent Such a representational strategy performs a very particular kind of hybridity and temporal balancing act capable of addressing the very issues of cultural memory and fractured identities so relevant to multi cultural post colonial cultural contexts
