Channels Of Imperishable Fire The Beginnings Of Christian Mystical:

Channels of Imperishable Fire Clement A. Kuehn, 1995 Ever since the poems of Dioscorus of Aphroditou ca 520 ca 585 C E were discovered on papyri in Upper Egypt they have perplexed and disturbed scholars Written largely in an Homeric vocabulary many appear to be praising dukes and other government officials according to encomiastic conventions Yet the poems do not adhere closely to these conventions and contain many verses and passages which are nearly incomprehensible This book demonstrates that many of these problematic passages have mystical significance and that the encomia possibly have an allegorical level of meaning The study also reveals the valuable contribution these poems make to our understanding of early Christian mysticism and Late Antique culture The Intellectual World of Late Antique Christianity Lewis

Ayres, Michael W. Champion, Matthew R. Crawford, 2023-10-26 The Intellectual World of Late Antique Christianity explores new perspectives on early Christian epistemology in relation to the changing discourses institutions and material culture of late antiquity Early Christian modes of knowing and ordering knowledge involved complex processes of appropriation reproduction and reconfiguration of Jewish and classical epistemologies This helped Christians develop cultures of interpretation and argument as textually oriented religious communities within the Roman Empire and beyond It laid an intellectual foundation that would be built upon and modified in a variety of later contexts Encompassing Greek Latin and Syriac Christianity and an historical arc that stretches from the New Testament to Bede this volume traces how diverse theological commitments resulted in distinctive Christian accounts of knowing It foregrounds the myriad ways in which early Christian epistemology was embedded in earlier intellectual traditions and forms of life and how they established norms for communal life and powerful ways of acting in the world Egypt in the Byzantine World, 300-700 Roger S.

Languages and Cultures of Eastern Christianity: Greek Scott Fitzgerald Johnson, 2017-05-15 This volume brings together a set of fundamental contributions many translated into English for this publication along with an important introduction Together these explore the role of Greek among Christian communities in the late antique and Byzantine East late Roman Oriens specifically in the areas outside of the immediate sway of Constantinople and imperial Asia Minor The local identities based around indigenous eastern Christian languages Syriac Coptic Armenian Georgian etc and post Chalcedonian doctrinal confessions Miaphysite Church of the East Melkite Maronite were solidifying precisely as the Byzantine polity in the East was extinguished by the Arab conquests of the seventh century In this multilayered cultural environment Greek was a common social touchstone for all of these Christian communities not only because of the shared Greek heritage of the early Church but also because of the continued value of Greek theological hagiographical and liturgical writings However these interactions were dynamic and living so that the Greek of the medieval Near East was itself transformed by such engagement with eastern Christian literature appropriating new ideas and new texts into the Byzantine repertoire in the process

Transfigurations of Hellenism László Török, 2021-11-29 This book deals with the architecture and visual arts in late antique early Byzantine Egypt as an organic part of the art of the Mediterranean region in the period between the 3rd and 8th centuries The richly illustrated book discusses the survival and transformations of Hellenistic themes and forms in the Roman and late antique periods It also presents a history of Coptic art history Transfigurations of Hellenism is an outstanding addition to this scholarship tracing out in detail the continuity of the Hellenistic tradition in Egyptian art All scholars of late antiquity will find much of interest in this fine work Stanley M Burstein California State University Los Angeles

Shifting Cultural Frontiers in Late Antiquity David Brakke, Deborah Deliyannis, 2016-12-05 Shifting Cultural Frontiers in Late Antiquity explores the transformation of classical culture in late antiquity by studying cultures at the borders the borders of empires of social classes of public and private spaces of literary genres of linguistic communities and of the modern disciplines that study antiquity Although such canonical figures of late ancient studies as Augustine and Ammianus Marcellinus appear in its pages this book shifts our perspective from the center to the side or the margins The essays consider for example the ordinary Christians whom Augustine addressed the border regions of Mesopotamia and Vandal Africa popular or legendary literature and athletes Although traditional philology rightly underlies the work that these essays do the authors several among the most prominent in the field of late ancient studies draw from and combine a range of disciplines and perspectives including art history religion and social history Despite their various subject matters and scholarly approaches the essays in Shifting Cultural Frontiers coalesce around a small number of key themes in the study of late antiquity the ambiguous effects of Christianization the creation of new literary and visual forms from earlier models the interaction and spread of ideals between social classes and the negotiation of ethnic and imperial identities in the contact between Romans and barbarians By looking away from the core and toward the periphery whether spatially or intellectually the volume offers fresh insights into how ancient patterns of thinking and creating became reconfigured into the diverse cultures of the medieval

The Cambridge Ancient History Averil Cameron, Bryan Ward-Perkins, Michael Whitby, 2001-03-29 Volume 14 concludes the new edition of The Cambridge Ancient History Economy and Society in the Age of Justinian Peter Sarris, 2006-09-28 The reign of the Byzantine Emperor Justinian 527-65 stands out in late Roman and medieval history Justinian reconquered far flung territories from the barbarians overhauled the Empire's administrative framework and codified for posterity the inherited tradition of Roman law This work represents a modern study in English of the social and economic history of the Eastern Roman Empire in the reign of the Emperor Justinian Drawing upon papyrological numismatic legal literary and archaeological evidence the study seeks to reconstruct the emergent nature of relations between landowners and peasants and aristocrats and emperors in the late antique Eastern Empire It provides a social and economic context in which to situate the Emperor Justinian's mid sixth century reform programme and questions the implications of the Eastern Empire's pattern of social and economic development under Justinian for its subsequent post

The Cambridge Ancient History ,2000 Poems in Context Laura Miguélez Caveró, 2008 Examining carefully the Egyptian epic hexameter production from the 3rd to the 6th centuries AD especially that of the southern region Thebaid this study provides an image of three centuries in the history of the Graeco Egyptian literature in which authors and poetry are related directly to the social economic cultural and literary contexts from which they come The training they could get and the books and authors they came in touch with explain that we know so many names and works written in a language and metrics that enjoyed the greatest esteem being considered proofs of the highest culture Laura Miguélez Caveró demonstrates that the traditional image of a school of Nonnos is not justified rather Triphiodorus Nonnus Musaeus Colluthus Cyrus of Panopolis and Christodorus of Coptos are just the tip of a literary iceberg we know only to some extent through the texts that papyri offer us
