Challenge Of Islam Encounters In Interfaith Dialogue:

The Challenge of Islam Douglas Pratt, 2005 Addressing challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter this book engages with the primary challenge enabling outsiders to understand the religion of Islam Douglas Pratt offers distinctive perspectives that complement much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular of Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the West Whilst in recent years there have been many introductions to Islam a book that combines introductory material with issues of the relationship of Islam to Christianity and Judaism and issues of dialogical engagement is rare and offers an important complementary perspective to other texts The Challenge of Islam Professor Religious Studies Adjunct Professor Theology and Interreligious Studies Douglas Pratt, Taylor & Francis Group, 2018-03-31 Addressing challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter this book engages with the primary challenge enabling outsiders to understand the religion of Islam Douglas Pratt offers distinctive perspectives that complement much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular of Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the West Whilst in recent years there have been many introductions to Islam a book that combines introductory material with issues of the relationship of Islam to Christianity and Judaism and issues of dialogical engagement is rare and offers an important complementary perspective to other texts Routledge Revivals: The Challenge of Islam (2005) Douglas Pratt, 2016-10-04 First published in 2005 this book addresses the challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter and attempts to enable outsiders to understand the religion of Islam The author offers distinctive perspectives that compliment much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the west The book is divided into three parts Part I constitutes an introduction to Islam Part II delves into aspects of the wider encounter with Islam and Part III explores issues in regard to the prospect of engaging in dialogue with Islam The author argues that in the post 9 11 world the imperative to understand and engage with Islam is urgent and intends this work to assist the reader in doing so

Muslims, Christians, and the Challenge of Interfaith Dialogue Jane I. Smith, 2007-10-11 The attacks of September 11 2001 instantly heightened the American public's sensitivity toward matters of religious difference Many Americans realized not only that non Muslims need to learn more about Islam but also that Muslims must better understand and articulate their own faith to themselves and others In this volume Jane Idleman Smith examines the current American Christian Muslim dialogue contextualized both through the history of Islam and of the contemporary West As we approach the sixth anniversary of 9 11 Smith dares to ask what progress has been made through this dialogue what happens when that dialogue fails and what direction it will take in the years to come Smith examines the recent theological writings of both Catholics and Protestants about dialogue and pluralism and shows that since 9 11 a few Muslim scholars in the West have also begun to write about these issues Now she argues many Christians and Muslims are expressing their desire to move beyond theological discussion into what is often called the dialogue of engagement As evidence she points to initiatives among young people women and

African Americans as they attempt to find ways to work together in local projects of justice and community service Throughout the book one hears the personal voices of these Muslim and Christian participants in the American interfaith dialogue While many of the encounters between Islam and Christianity over the past 14 centuries have been peaceful Americans know little about the history of religious interaction beyond the Crusades or the fear Europe felt in the face of the invasions of the Turks This volume is intended to educate Americans about the great diversity of Muslims in this country while illustrating how Christians and Muslims are coming together not only to talk to each other but to work together for the common good

Contemporary Christian-Muslim Dialogue Douglas Pratt, 2021-02-28 This book introduces and examines the work of two significant 21st century Christian Muslim dialogue initiatives Building Bridges and the Christian Muslim Theological Forum and gives close attention to five theological themes that have been addressed in common by them An overview and analysis including inception development outputs and significance together with discussion of the select themes community scripture prophecy prayer and ethics allows for an in depth examination of significant contemporary Muslim and Christian scholarship on issues important to both faith communities The result is a challenging encounter to arguably a widespread default presumption of irredeemable mutual hostility and inevitable mutual rejection with instances of violent extremism as a consequence Demonstrating the reality that deep interreligious engagement is possible between the two faiths today this book should appeal to a wide readership including upper undergraduate and graduate teaching as well as professionals and practitioners in the field of Christian Muslim relations

Contemporary Muslim-Christian Encounters Paul Hedges, 2015-07-30 Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues addresses the key issues in the present day global encounter between Christians and Muslims Divided into two parts the first examines theoretical issues and concerns which affect dialogue between the two traditions The second part highlights case studies from around the world Chapters come from established scholars including Reuven Firestone Douglas Pratt and Clinton Bennett emerging scholars as well as practitioner perspectives Highlighting the diversity within the field of Christian Muslim encounter case studies cover examples from the US and globally and include dialogue in the US post 9 11 Nigerian Muslims and Christians and Christian responses to Islamophobia in the UK Covering unique areas and those not explored in detail elsewhere Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues will be of interest to advanced students researchers and interfaith professionals

Interreligious Dialogue Models Alwani Ghazali, Muhammad Kamal, 2023-12-15 How did the Prophet Muhammad pbuh converse and engage with other religious believers Did he start off with prejudice and mistrust Or was he convivial and open minded This book analyses six models of the dealings in the lifetime of the Prophet Muhammad pbuh specifically but not restricted to the siblings of Abrahamic religious believers The six models of dialogue analysed in the book are dialogue with Ashamah Najashi of Abyssinia delegation of Najran Christians different Jews of Yathrib and emperors of Byzantine and Sassanid The analysis applies Ibn Khaldun s d 1406 historical approach which the author termed as Khaldunian Hermeneutics due to the similarity between his ideas to that of Johann Gustav Droysen d 1884 a German philosopher in historical hermeneutics As such the analysis goes beyond the dialogue content taking into consideration the immediate and larger contextual settings and changes of the contexts due to the passage of time It critically considers the suitability of each model due to the difference in times and contexts The book serves as a reference for Muslim dialogue advocates and practitioners to provide substantial evidence of the dialogue application by the role model of Muslims the Prophet Muhammad pbuh whom they hold very dear to their hearts

The Challenge of Islam Douglas Pratt, 2005 Addressing challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter this book engages with the primary challenge enabling outsiders to understand the religion of Islam Douglas Pratt offers distinctive perspectives that complement much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular of Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the West Whilst in recent years there have been many introductions to Islam a book that combines introductory material with issues of the relationship of Islam to Christianity and Judaism and issues of dialogical engagement is rare and offers an important complementary perspective to other texts

Religion and Extremism Douglas Pratt, 2017-12-14 Focusing on the three monotheistic religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam Douglas Pratt argues that despite a popular focus on Islam extremist Jews and Christians can also enact terror and destruction Religion and Extremism stresses that the ideological rejection of diversity underlies religious extremism resulting in violent behaviours and increasingly in hardening social and religious attitudes and responses An analysis of religiously driven terrorism reveals the presence of a distinctive and rigid form of exclusivity found in these religions In this regard the contemporary resurgence in totalising claims of fundamentalist ideologues is cause for particular concern Pratt reasons that however expressed the motif of the Absolute is central to all but how that absolute is and has been received interpreted and responded to is a matter of great diversity The author asserts that theological Absolutism displays an underlying dynamic whereby these three religions may be led into extremism Religion and Extremism also explores contemporary issues of Islamophobia and mutual extremism identified as reactive co radicalization and concludes by reflecting on how extremism today might be countered

Contemporary Muslim-Christian Encounters Paul Hedges, 2015-07-30 Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues addresses the key issues in the present day global encounter between Christians and Muslims Divided into two parts the first examines theoretical issues and concerns which affect dialogue between the two traditions The second part highlights case studies from around the world Chapters come from established scholars including Reuven Firestone Douglas Pratt and Clinton Bennett emerging scholars as well as practitioner perspectives Highlighting the diversity within the field of Christian Muslim encounter case studies cover examples from the US and globally and include dialogue in the US post 9 11 Nigerian Muslims and Christians and Christian responses to Islamophobia in the UK Covering unique areas and those not explored in detail elsewhere Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues will be of interest to advanced students researchers and interfaith professionals      The Future of Interfaith Dialogue Yazid Said,Lejla Demiri,2018-08-30 A Common Word Between Us and You ACW is an open letter dated 13 October 2007 from leaders of the Islamic religion to those of the Christian religion It calls for peace between Muslims and Christians and seeks common ground and understanding between both religions This volume examines the document from a number of perspectives Exploring the events that led to ACW it provides an overview of responses to the document and its use of scripture It also relates the reception of ACW to several specific and contrasting contexts and recommends new avenues for ACW inspired discussion Advancing debate and dialogue between Jews Muslims and Christians this volume promotes a distinctive methodology for inter religious studies and serves as an invaluable resource for students and scholars of theology and religious studies      Scripture, Reason, and the Contemporary Islam-West Encounter S. Kepnes,B. Koshul,2007-08-06 The unique essays in this collection use the underlying allegiance to scripture in Islam Judaism and Christianity to underscore the deep affinities between the three monotheistic traditions while at the same time encouraging respect for the differences between the traditions to be preserved      Islam and Peacebuilding John Esposito,Ishan Yilmaz,2010-08-16 John L Esposito is University Professor of Religion and International Affairs at Georgetown University and Founding Director of the Prince Alwaleed Bin Talal Center for Muslim Christian Understanding      The Muslim World Book Review ,2008      Index Islamicus ,2007      Challenges and Responses Gnana Robinson,2000 Contributed articles      The Publishers Weekly ,2005      World Faiths Encounter ,1998      Interfaith Dialogue Michael L.
