Challenge Of Missions:

The Challenge of Missions Smith Oswald J, Oswald J. Smith, 1995-02 Between Horror and Hope is a study of Paul's metaphorical language of death in Romans 6 1 11 The scholarly debate focuses on two main issues the origin of the commentatio mortis tradition and its development Dr Sabou argues that the origin of this terminology is original to Paul that it was the apostle's own insight into the meaning of Christ's death a death to sin and his understanding of the identity of Christ in his death as the anointed davidic king which guided him to create this metaphor of dying to sin as a way of describing the relationship of the believer with sin On the development of this language of death the author argues that this language conveys two aspects horror and hope The first is discussed in the context of crucifixion in which Paul explains the believer's death to sin by presenting Christ's death as the death of the anointed davidic king who won the victory over sin and death by rising from the dead Paul affirms that believers are coalesced with what was proclaimed about Christ's death and resurrection thereby allowing him to assert that the releasing of the body from the power of sin is a result of crucifixion This crucifixion is the condemnation inflicted on our past lives in the age inaugurated by Adam's sin and this is such a horrible event that believers have to stay away from sin since sin leads to such punishment In contrast hope is presented in the context of burial The believers burial with Christ points to the fact that they are part of Christ's family and this is accomplished by the overwhelming action of God by which he pushes us toward the event of Christ's death an act pictured in baptism It is this burial with Christ that allows believers to share with Christ in newness of life cultural and social barriers in order to share the good news of Jesus Christ with all peoples Drawing on his involvement in missionary work over many years Samuel Escobar explores how the church spreads the Christian faith God s Word forms the foundation for his reflections while he uses insights from theological and historical studies as well as from the social sciences to gain a clearer understanding of the church s missionary calling His stimulating and challenging analysis contributes significantly to a global evangelical dialogue on mission today and in the future

Jonathan J. Bonk, Michel G. Distefano, J. Nelson Jennings, Jinbong Kim, Jae Hoon Lee, 2022-03-21 Integrity Viability and Accountability Perhaps there is no greater challenge in missions than money Paul reminds us For we are taking pains to do what is right not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of man 2 Cor 8 21 Money sufficient to assure the viability of one s life work carries with it an insidious ethical virus that can easily infect the integrity and accountability of its stewards The Realities of Money Missions provides a unique level of credibility and transparency as it calls for evangelicals to reevaluate their relationship with money both personally and corporately Global case studies workshops and testimonials cover a broad range of topics such as Misalignment between fiscal theology and practice Environmental stewardship community development and business as mission Mobilization fundraising practices and faith financing Short term missions patronage and dependency Power dynamics and structural injustice The Realities of Money Missions was not written by experts in the fields of investment money management or fundraising but by men and women whose calling as missionaries pastors and administrators has brought them face to face with the complex real life issues involving the intersection of money and ministry Read on and be challenged to change

The Church and The Challenge of Missions Ernest

Musekiwa, 2014-11-01 The Church s Great Commission is enshrined in three great tasks Going Preaching and Teaching In most local churches there have been a paradigm shifting on priorities leading to a lost zeal in missions work However it is still the biblical mandate for the Church to carry on the Great Commission of Christ in a race against time in winning the lost before Jesus returns In this book the author discusses how important the biblical goal of missions is vital for the growth of a healthy dynamic Christian and Church life The first part looks at the Orders of the Church the second part discusses the Obligation of the Church and the final part of the book looks at the Obstacles of the Church in doing missions work True biblical Christianity should drive the Church out into the world of the lost and bring them to the salvation that is in Christ When we neglect this urgent agenda on God s time table we lose the purpose of our existence as Christians The passion that drove Christ to the Cross should be the same passion that drives us into world evangelism
