Challenging Cancer From Chaos To Control:

Challenging Cancer Nira Kfir, Maurice L. Slevin, 1991 Shows people with cancer how they can stop feeling like victims and regain control of their lives In their own words patients describe their strategies for coping with their situation and show that it is possible to turn a crisis into an opportunity A Good Death Lesley Cullen, Michael Young, 2005-06-28 A Good Death is based on a survey in East London and provides a wide range of fascinating and helpful insights into all aspects of experiencing death and surviving grief The voices in the book are those of people who have managed to cope despite being under the shadow of impending death Their experience could be a comfort to anybody in a similar situation A Good Death is intended for people who are dying for their lay and professional carers and for student doctors nurses and social workers
