Chameleon Poet A Life Of George Baker:

The Chameleon Poet Robert Fraser, 2002 The poet George Barker was convinced that his biography could never be written I've stirred the facts around too much he told Robert Fraser It simply can't be done Eliot wrote of his genius Yeats thought him the most interesting poet of his generation Dylan Thomas envied his power over women War trapped him in Japan In America he conducted one of the most celebrated love affairs of the century He fathered fifteen children in several countries three during one battle torn summer By the 1950s he was the toast of Soho Barker was Catholic and bohemian frank and elusive tender and boisterous In Eliot's phrase he was a most peculiar fellow Robert Fraser's biography offers both a portrait of a talented tormented and irresistibly entertaining man and a broad cultural landscape Around the central figure cluster painters like Francis Bacon Lucian Freud Johnny Minton and the Roberts Colquhoun and MacBryde writers such as Dylan Thomas Walter de la Mare and Elizabeth Smart whose By Grand Central Station I Sat Down and Wept hymns their liaison the lugubrious humorist Jeffrey Bernard After closing time at the Colony Room Minton declared they had to sweep up the jokes

Between the Sheets Lesley McDowell, 2012-02-28 The literary critic examines the love lives and career ambitions of some of the twentieth century's greatest female authors from Sylvia Plath to Anaïs Nin Why did a gifted writer like Sylvia Plath stumble into a marriage that drove her to suicide Why did Hilda Doolittle H.D. want to marry Ezra Pound when she was far more attracted to women Why did Simone de Beauvoir pimp for Jean Paul Sartre In Between the Sheets author and feminist scholar Lesley McDowell examines nine famously troubled literary romances to arrive at a provocative insight into the motivations of these and other great female writers The list of the damages done in each of these sexual relationships is long but each provokes the same question would these women have become the writers they became without these relationships Delving into their diaries letters and journals McDowell examines the extent to which each woman was prepared to put artistic ambition before personal happiness and how dependent on their male writing partners they felt themselves to be McDowell has culled incredibly juicy details With so many affairs and broken hearts the most surprising thing may be that anything got written in the last 100 years The New York Times Book Review
