Champion Of The Great American Family:

Champion of the Great American Family Pat Schroeder, Andrea Camp, Robyn Lipner, 1989 Pat Schroeder the congresswoman from Colorado who is the most prominent woman in our country's politics Savvy writes a very personal book about her own family and the issues facing modern American families Still Paving the Way for Madam President Nichola D. Gutgold, 2017-05-24 When Madam President moves into the Oval Office of the White House she will share a path that several women have helped to pave Often left off the history pages and out of the minds of many Americans are the presidential bids of several women Margaret Chase Smith 1964 Shirley Chisholm 1972 Patricia Schroeder 1988 Elizabeth Dole 2000 Carol Moseley Braun 2004 and Hillary Clinton 2008 2016 Still Paving the Way for Madam President shows the progress women candidates have made as they have moved from symbolic candidates to viable candidates and in 2016 the Democratic nominee This study shines a light on the persistent obstacles that face women candidates and offers insight into what it will take to finally shatter the seemingly impenetrable political glass ceiling The Politics of Parenthood Mary Frances Berry, 1994-03-01 A distinguished scholar presents a landmark historical perspective on parenthood in America This trailblazing book suggests that behind the rhetoric of maternal responsibility are issues of power resources and control Berry's book could be a significant impetus for corporate executives and political leaders conservatives and liberals and mothers and fathers to support parental involvement that is gender free The Washington Post Book World Paving the Way for Madam President Nichola D. Gutgold, 2006-01-01 This book chronicles the lives communication styles and presidential bids of five remarkable women _Margaret Chase Smith Shirley Chisholm Patricia Schroeder Elizabeth Dole and Carol Moseley Braun_ while also addressing the obstacles and opportunities for women as presidential contenders Women in Congress, 1917-2006 Matthew Andrew Wasniewski, 2006 Provides the most comprehensive source available on the 229 women who have served in U S House of Representatives and Senate from the first woman elected to Congress Jeannette Rankin of Montana to the members of the 109th Congress Covers the breadth of the story of congressional women Includes photographs Indexed Matthew Wasniewski Editor Related Items Women In Congress 1917 2017 epub format can be found here https://bookstore.gpo.gov/products/sku/021_300_00003_9 MOBI format can be found here https://bookstore.gpo.gov/products/sku/021_300_00004_7 Women on the Frontlines of Peace and Security can be found here https://bookstore.gpo.gov/products/sku/008_046_00285_1 ctid 1443 The Women's History collection of publications can be found here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/taxonomy/term/535/womens-history> Women of Congress Marcy Kaptur, 1996 Traces the history of women legislators in Congress providing an overview of the achievements and progress of women in the House and Senate during three separate periods in history and including the personal stories of congresswomen who served in each different era Women Politicians and the Media Maria Braden, 2014-10-17 All American politicians face the glare of media coverage both in running for office and in representing their constituents if elected But for women seeking or holding high public office as Maria Braden demonstrates the scrutiny by newspapers and television can be both withering and damaging a fact that has changed little over the decades despite the emergence of more women in politics and more women in the news media. Particularly disturbing is the fact that the increase in the number of women reporters appears to have had little effect on the way women candidates are portrayed in the media. Some women reporters in fact seem intent on proving that they can be just as tough on women candidates as their male counterparts thus perpetuating the misrepresentations of the past. Braden examines the political fortunes of Jeannette Rankin the first woman elected to the U S House those of the congressional glamour girls of the 1940s Clare Boothe Luce and Helen Gahagan Douglas the long Senate career of Margaret Chase Smith the political struggles of diverse women of more recent decades including Bella Abzug Elizabeth Holtzman Nancy Kassebaum Barbara Jordan Dianne Feinstein and Ann Richards and the disastrous vice presidential bid of Geraldine Ferraro. Braden traces a persistent double standard in media coverage of women's political campaigns through the past eighty years. Journalists dwell on the candidates' novelty in public office and describe them in ways that stereotype and trivialize them. Especially demeaning are comments on women's appearance personality and family connections comments of a sort that would rarely be made about men candidates. Are they too pretty or too plain? What do their clothes say about them? Are they feminine enough or too masculine? Are they still just ordinary housewives or are they neglecting their families by heading for Washington or the state house? Braden's study is based on both media accounts and the revealing personal interviews she conducted with a broad range of recent women politicians including Margaret Chase Smith Bella Abzug Kay Bailey Hutchison Nancy Kassebaum and Ann Richards. All describe agonizing struggles to get across to the public the message that they are serious and competent candidates capable of holding high office and shaping our nation's course.

Misogyny Gail Ukockis, 2019-01-16 Impassioned but practical this book dives into the topic of misogyny and proposes strategies for effective feminist action. Gail Ukockis traces the history of misogyny and considers its meaning today what is new and what is old and offers concrete guidance as we strive for the egalitarian society that despite all setbacks we are capable of achieving.
