Changing Channels Issues And Realities In Television News:

Changing Channels Jerry M. Jacobs, 1990 Changing Channels is a brief up to date examination of the trials and tribulations of the broadcast television news profession Based on actual interviews with news anchors directors reporters and producers Book cover Broadcasting the Local News Lynn Boyd Hinds, 2010-11-01 Television came to Pittsburgh in 1949 when WDTV the forerunner of KDKA TV went on the air Whereas many television stations in the United States began reading news on the air only to comply with FCC requirements WDTV treated news seriously from day one with its first regular program a local news show called Pitt Parade Today KDKA is still highly regarded among journalists for its news programming Although television news may seem familiar to us it was anything but familiar to the men and women of early television Hinds shows how they borrowed liberally from newspapers radio motion picture newsreels theater and even magazines to create by trial and error suitable ways to present the news Rather than instantly replacing radio television news moved slowly from the rip and read radio style format which simply duplicated what came over the wire services and was in the newspapers to the conventions of local newscasts we take for granted today live remotes lead and feature stories sports and weather all brought together by an in studio anchor Pittsburghers will recognize many familiar names in Hinds s account Bill Burns Paul Long Florence Sando Eleanor Schano and others veterans of Pittsburgh broadcasting whom Hinds has interviewed for this book The story they tell is the story of dozens of other stations across the country In the process they tell us much about the early history of television in America Lynn Boyd Hinds spent over twenty years in Pittsburgh television and radio before moving to Penn State University where he was an affiliate producer for WPSX TV the public broadcasting station in Central Pennsylvania There he created and hosted the popular quiz show The Pennsylvania Game Today he is Associate Professor of Broadcast News in the Perley Isaac Reed School of Journalism at West Virginia University

Performing the News Elia Powers, 2024 Performing The News Identity Authority the Myth of Neutrality explores how journalists from historically marginalized groups have felt pressure to conform when performing for audiences and are increasingly challenging restrictive supposedly neutral forms of self presentation Through in depth interviews this book suggests ways to make journalism more inclusive and representative of diverse audiences Encyclopedia of Television Horace Newcomb, 2014-02-03 The Encyclopedia of Television second edition is the first major reference work to provide description history analysis and information on more than 1100 subjects related to television in its international context For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of Television 2nd edition website Professional News Reporting Bruce Garrison, 2013-11-05 Because reporting is changing this volume offers readers a thorough introduction to the rapidly evolving world of gathering information for local news organizations This easy to read text is filled with contemporary examples and solid advice for the beginning reporting student Designed for students with a foundation in news writing it provides chapters on such basics as news research interviewing and observation skills It further offers a chapter on the use of personal computers as research and reporting tools Readers will find useful tips and examples written by award winning professional journalists that reflect the numerous changes in the art and science of information gathering in the past decade

Australasian Journal of American Studies ,1994 Television Research Ronald L. Jacobson,1995 This directory consists of an alphabetical ordering of television related categories For each category a brief conceptual overview is presented followed by a list of relevant research or lecture topic suggestions and a bibliography of selected print sources mostly books Users should appreciate the directory as a reference tool intended solely as a guide to studying television and not as an end in itself As such the categories herein are not necessarily mutually exclusive nor are the overviews topic suggestions and bibliographies meant to be comprehensive Instead this publication is intended to inform broadly to stimulate critical thinking and to serve as a catalyst for further inquiry An Additional Sources section is included at the end of the directory General reference books relevant indexes and databases scholarly journals popular magazines newspapers and trade publications are listed Libraries and museums containing special television related collections are also noted There always seems to be new print publications and electronic databases that provide access to television related content Please consider this directory as but one entry point to television research Users are encouraged to solicit the expertise of a professional librarian in order to access the most relevant sources available on topics of interest
