Changing Governance Of Local Economies:

Economic Change Governance and Natural Resource Wealth David Reed, 2023-04-14 This volume analyzes the ways in which natural resource wealth has shaped authoritarian political regimes and statist economic systems in the countries of southern Africa in the post colonial period It consists of five essays The first sets out the historical framework and emergence of natural resources as the crucial driver of economies in sub Saharan Africa Three essays drawing on in country research focus on Tanzania Zambia and Zimbabwe They show how this explains the economic evolution of those countries in particular the impacts of economic and institutional changes on the bulk of the population the rural poor The final essay explores the nature of the changes and their neoliberal economic context and the ways in which their harmful consequences might be relieved

Changing Governance of Local Economies Colin Crouch, 2004-02-26 Do specialized local clusters of small and medium sized firms have a future in the global economy The authors address this question with case studies of cities in France Germany Italy and the United Kingdom They look at the machinery industries former steel producing cities trying to develop clusters in new activities and high tech sectors They find evidence of considerable vitality often contradicting national stereotypes of how economies are organized
