A Musical Offering Martin Bernstein, 1977 In the great tradition of the German Festschrift this book brings together articles by Professor Bernstein's colleagues friends and students to honor him on his 70th birthday Ranging in subject from the troubadour through esoteric aspects of Renaissance studies and authenticity in 18th century musical sources to a lively and irreverent attack on performance practices today the twenty essays by many of America's most distinguished scholars reflect the breadth and variety of Martin Bernstein's far reaching interests and demonstrates the vitality and relevance of what is best in musicology today

The Royal Chapel in the Time of the Habsburgs Juan José Carreras López, Bernardo José García García, Tess Knighton, 2005 Focusing on the royal chapel established by Philip II in Madrid the essays in this richly illustrated volume offer a series of different perspectives on the development of the main court chapels of Europe English version edited by Tess Knighton The royal chapel in Europe as a whole and in Spain in particular was a cultural institution where court ceremonial politics music and the arts were brought together in terms of space and function The ramifications for the patronage and cultivation of the arts and the dynamic between music and the arts and the concept of kingship form the focus of the text The phenomenon of groupings of singers chaplains and musicians at the service of the different European monarchies is of great significance both for the history of music and the political and cultural history of the court in general. The royal chapel established by Philip II in Madrid was the central religious and musical institution of royal power until well into the eighteenth century and using this as a focus the essays in this richly illustrated volume offer a series of different perspectives on the development of the main court chapels of Europe. These papers were delivered at the international seminar La Real Capilla de Palacio en la época de los Austrias under the auspices of the Fundación Carlos de Amberes Madrid from 14 to 16 December 2000. The volume is edited by Tess Knighton, Juan José Carreras and Bernardo García García and translated by Yolanda Acker. Grove's Dictionary of Music and Musicians John Alexander Fuller-Maitland, 1909

It is to be published in conjunction with a television series. French Vernacular Books / Livres vernaculaires français (FB) (2 vols.) Andrew Pettegree, Malcolm Walsby, Alexander Wilkinson, 2007-11-30 This work offers for the first time a complete list of all books published wholly or partially in the French language before 1601. Based on twelve years of investigations in libraries in France, the United Kingdom, the United States, Germany, the Netherlands and elsewhere it provides an analytical short title catalogue of over 52 000 bibliographically distinct items with reference to surviving copies in over 1 600 libraries worldwide. Many of the items described are editions and even complete texts fully unknown and re-discovered by the project. French Vernacular Books is an invaluable research tool for all students and scholars interested in the history, culture and literature of France as well as historians of the early modern book world.
