Chaos Creativity And Cosmic Consciousness:

Chaos, Creativity, and Cosmic Consciousness Rupert Sheldrake, Terence McKenna, Ralph Abraham, 2001-11-01 Three of the most original thinkers of our time explore issues that call into question our current views of reality morality and the nature of life A wide ranging investigation of the ecology of inner and outer space the role of chaos theory in the dynamics of human creation and the rediscovery of traditional wisdom In this book of trialogues the late psychedelic visionary and shamanologist Terence McKenna acclaimed biologist and originator of the morphogenetic fields theory Rupert Sheldrake and mathematician and chaos theory scientist Ralph Abraham explore the relationships between chaos and creativity and their connection to cosmic consciousness Their observations call into question our current views of reality morality and the nature of life in the universe The authors challenge the reader to the deepest levels of thought with wide ranging investigations of the ecology of inner and outer space the role of chaos in the dynamics of human creation and the resacralization of the world Among the provocative questions the authors raise are Is Armageddon a self fulfilling prophecy Are we humans the imaginers or the imagined Are the eternal laws of nature still evolving What is the connection between physical light and the light of consciousness Part ceremony part old fashioned intellectual discussion these trialogues are an invitation to a new understanding of what Jean Houston calls the dreamscapes of our everyday waking life

The Cosmos and the Creative Imagination Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, Patricia Trutty-Cooill, 2016-02-03 The essays in this book respond to Anna Teresa Tymieniecka s recent call to explore the relationship between the evolution of the universe and the process of self individuation in the ontopoietic unfolding of life The essays approach the sensory manifold in a number of ways They show that theories of modern science become a strategy for the phenomenological study of works of art and vice versa Works of phenomenology and of the arts examine how individual spontaneity connects with the design s of the logos of the whole and of the particulars while the design s rest not on some human concept but on life itself Life s pliable matrices allow us to consider the expansiveness of contemporary science and to help create a contemporary phenomenological sense of cosmos

Creativity Rob Pope, 2005 Seeking throughout to bridge the gap between the creative and the critical and to span disciplinary boundaries this book offers a significant intervention in the theory of creativity and the practice of criticism

Strange Attractor Graham St John, 2025-10-07 An intellectual biography of one of the most celebrated and yet least understood figures of the late twentieth century Terence McKenna A stand up philosopher who made a unique contribution to science humanism and the hidden arts Terence McKenna 1946 2000 was the twentieth century s psychedelic Renaissance man Perfecting his rugged philosophy on the role of psychedelics in evolution consciousness and time McKenna was a riotous charmer who stalked the shadows but also sought the iridescence More than twenty years since his untimely passing McKenna has an enduring magnetism across the virtual pop stream in pervasive digitization and within social media networks In Strange Attractor the first biography of this enigmatic figure Graham St John detects the signal behind the noise

This book is an engaging chronicle of the life works and legacy of this brazen adventurer of the inner and outer dimensions whose weird intelligence has affected multitudes and whose spirit continues to haunt the present. It draws on original documents and letters, features fifty-two rare photographs and artworks, and shares previously untold stories from over eighty people. Neither glorifying nor disparaging its subject, Strange Attractor will appeal to those interested in the evolution of a psychedelic intellectual and to those for whom McKenna's wisdom endures. Atlantis Rising 103 - January/February 2014 J. Consciousness, Theatre, Literature and the Arts Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe, 2006. In May 2005 the University of Wales Aberystwyth hosted the First International Conference on Consciousness, Theatre, Literature and the Arts. 80 delegates from fourteen countries attended the conference. This book collects 40 of the papers presented, characteristic of the wide range of topics and disciplines represented at the conference. The Journal of the American Society for Psychical Research

, 2002. Journal of the American Society for Psychical Research. American Society for Psychical Research, 2002. List of members in v. 1. 6-12. Healing with Art and Soul Kathy Luethje, 2009. This fascinating collection of essays contains a variety of perspectives about the use of expressive arts for facilitating physical and emotional healing. Each author within brings a fresh approach and unique experiences to their writing. Within these pages you will find many ideas for the use of the arts and can learn how to engage the inner layers of the self that allow natural healing processes of the body and soul to flourish. When we fully engage an art modality we find ourselves in a place in our consciousness that could be called healingspace where we feel ourselves whole and remember ourselves as well. From psychic trauma to physical illness, disease of many kinds may be addressed through the various techniques discussed here. The tools offered by some authors are population specific and age appropriate, while several authors have given us the philosophical underpinnings for it all. While the authors within represent the grassroots voices of this new and rapidly expanding field, several of them have developed their own methods for using the arts and have thriving practices. Our approach is wholistic. Music, visual arts, movement, dance, and poetry are discussed as separate modalities and in combination with one another in a process or flow. The reader will engage in our experiences with these modalities as they have been lived. The complementary CD that accompanies this book will allow the listener to have a full sound experience of toning. If a rationale is needed for establishing arts programs in medical centers or other health facilities, it can be found here. The book offers tools for self-development and for group facilitation. Those wanting to expand their healing practice through the use of the arts will find the book to be a faithful guide.

Anyone wishing for a fuller understanding of how the arts may work to facilitate healing will find much food for thought within these pages Life, Mind, and Consciousness ,2004 Contributed research papers Homo Deva Mary Morgan Belknap,2004 Mysticism, Aesthetics, and Cosmic Consciousness Asghar Talaye Minai,2003 Parabola ,1976 Bulletin of the Ramakrishna Mission Institute of Culture Ramakrishna Mission.
