Chai The Kangaroo:

Chai, the Kangaroo Pam Blashki, Clifton Ernest Pugh, 1985      The Small Kitchen Cook Ashleigh Butler, 2023-01-30
Ashleigh Butler has spent a decade living and travelling in campervans across Australia and the US with her partner Jared. Although she left behind the ideals and conveniences of suburban life, Ash wasn't prepared to abandon wholesome and conscious cooking even in their unconventional kitchens. In her first collection of more than 65 recipes for campervan caravans and tiny homes, Ash shows it's simple to cook delicious seasonal and nourishing food when all you've got is a two-burner stove, a small fridge, and an incredible ever-changing view. This is food for adventurers with a mind for sustainability and anyone who wants to eat fresh wholesome meals as varied as the seasons, locations, and friends they meet along their journey. For every copy sold, one tree is planted.      The Oxford Companion to Australian Children's Literature Stella Lees, Pam Macintyre, 1993. Arranged alphabetically, The Oxford Companion to Australian Children's Literature contains 1600 entries covering authors, publishers, illustrators, famous characters, events, institutions, and awards from Ned Kelly and the Eureka Stockade to Australian comics and the work of Evelyn Goode. From Thorpe.      The Franz Document Joseph Itiel, 1989. The Franz Document is a novel about a half-Jewish homosexual student in Vienna whose father is a functionary in the Austrian Nazi party. After the Germans invade Austria, he is sent to a concentration camp, accused of being an anarchist, homosexual, and Jew. Upon his release, he flees to Switzerland where he spends the war years. Later, he becomes an interpreter for the American occupation forces in Vienna. Eventually, he winds his way to India to seek spiritual enlightenment. From there, he travels to Thailand and the Philippines. It is there that he makes peace with his homosexuality.      Hong Kong Condensed Dani Valent, 2001. Hungate, 2013-10-22. Radioecological Concentration Processes present the overall model for problems of environmental contamination in terms of system analysis This book discusses the major investigational approaches to study of environmental contamination with radioactivity Organized into 90 chapters this book starts with an overview of the results of the experimental investigations into the distribution of strontium in soils and the uptake of this nuclide by plants This text then presents the comparison of the distribution character in different soil types which shows clearly that ploughed soils differ from virgin soils by a more uniform and similar character of radioisotope distribution in them Other chapters consider the migration of  $^{90}\text{Sr}$  in the mostly podzolic and water logged soils of moderately northern latitudes of Russia The final chapter deals with the experiments with the shore crab Carcinus maenas which shows that the crab is able to regulate the zinc content of its body against changes in the zinc content of food or of surrounding water Biochemists will find this book useful
