

Terrorism: The Threat Today

Terrorism: Unlawful use of force or violence against persons or property, to intimidate or coerce a government, its civilian population, or any segment thereof, in furtherance of political or social objectives. (Modified from U.S. FBI)

- Countries today are threatened by modern and sophisticated terrorist organizations. Improvements in technology, specifically mobile communication and the internet, allow terrorist organizations to execute larger and more precise operations that surpass the scale of 9/11.
- Throughout the past two decades terrorists have been raising funds, independently, and through countries that support their motives or tactics.
- Terrorist organizations now have professional training, intelligence resources, state of the art technology, and top notch weapons to carry out their attacks.
