Challenge To Civilization A History Of:

Before the European Challenge Jaroslav Krejci, 1990-06-09 The West fails to embrace the globe and the East still looks to its own variegated past Here is a comparative account of the spirit and development of the main civilizations in Asia before their confrontation with Modern Europe In many respects what is going on in Asia and in the Middle East now is a response to the prolonged European challenge In places it is marked by a selective reception of Western values and techniques while elsewhere preference is given to inspiration from the domestic tradition This book aims to contribute to the understanding of these traditions It takes the form of a historical narrative and gives a comparative insight of the world views values and institutions

The Challenge of Islam Norman O. Brown, 2009-08-04 The Prophetic Tradition The Challenge of Islam is an enlightening set of lectures given by Norman O Brown during the 1980s exploring a wide ranging array of topics concerning Islam Brown reveals the overlooked relationship between Islam and early Christianity exploring Islam s relation to and revision of the Christian tradition the literary innovation of the Qu ran the nature of revolutionary and political Islam and the vision of a world civilization Throughout these lectures which are remarkably pertinent today Brown seeks to educate the reader on misunderstood areas of Islam including the split between the Sunni and Shi ite sects and Islam s exemplification of the broad themes of art and imagination in human life The author s world historical perspective of religion and tradition gives readers a crucial alternative to the divisive clash of civilizations view that paints Islam as at odds with the West He exposes the unifying strands between Islam and early Judeo Christian doctrine showing that Islam is in fact a genuine part of Western tradition and more importantly part of a global tradition that embraces us all

The Challenge of Eurocentrism R. Kanth, 2009-04-26 Eurocentrism is the current object of a global critique which has the potential to be as significant as Marxist and Feminist critiques have been This critique focuses on and dissects the paradigms that have emanated from the European Enlightenment
