Whiteness in Higher Education: The Invisible Missing Link in Diversity and Racial Analyses: ASHE Higher Education Report, Volume 42, Number 6 Nolan L. Cabrera,Jeremy D. Franklin,Jesse S. Watson,2017-01-10 When issues of diversity and race arise in higher education scholarship and practice the focus is generally on Students of Color That being said if there are People of Color being marginalized on college campuses there is a structural mechanism facilitating the marginalization This monograph explores the relevance of Whiteness to the field of Higher Education While Whiteness as a racial discourse is continually changing and defies classification it is both real in terms of its impacts on the campus racial dynamics Highlighting many of the contours of Whiteness in higher education this volume explores the influence of Whiteness on interpersonal interactions campus climate culture ecology policy and scholarship Additionally it explores what can be done both individually and institutionally to address the problem of Whiteness in higher education Ultimately this monograph is offered from the perspective that racial issues concern everyone and this engages the possibility of both People of Color destabilizing Whiteness and White people becoming racial justice allies within the context of higher education institutions This is the sixth issue of the 42nd volume of the Jossey Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education issue based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication Journal of College Student Development ,2006

Transforming the Ivory Tower Brett C. Stockdill,Mary Yu Danico,2012 This work builds on the rich legacy of historical struggles to open universities to dissenting voices and oppressed groups Each chapter is guided by a commitment to praxis the idea that theoretical understandings of inequality must be applied to concrete strategies for change It will be required reading for all students faculty and administrators seeking to understand bias and discrimination in higher education and to engage in social justice work on and off college campuses Distance Learning in Higher Education Alfred P. Rovai,Michael K. Ponton,Jason D. Baker,2008-07-24 This useful resource describes the best practices for designing online programs and courses Translating research on the learning characteristics of adult university students and their experiences with online learning into practical guidelines the authors address topics such as program and course planning design and delivery multicultural and gender issues program evaluation student evaluation of online teaching and institutional and program accreditation The text includes resources such as online course materials and assessment tasks that are culturally responsive and also implement the strategies presented in the book Providing a roadmap for those wishing to design and implement a distance learning program this up to date volume Explains how to facilitate and moderate interactions using a constructivist approach Presents strategies that respond to race and gender related challenges Provides a model for evaluating distance learning programs Identifies strategies that promote valid and reliable evaluations of online teaching Addresses institutional and distance learning program accreditation issues     Challenging the Potential Sherri Oden,1992     The Social Studies Professional ,1997     Hate Crimes Barbara Perry,2009 This book offers a comprehensive approach to understanding hate crime its causes consequences prevention and prosecution Hate crimes continue to be a pervasive problem in the United States The murder of Matthew Shepard the lynching of James Byrd the murderous rampage of Benjamin Smith and anti Muslim violence remind us that incidence of deadly bigotry is not only a recurring chapter in U S history but also a part of our present day world Contrary to common belief hate mongers who commit crimes are rarely members of the Ku Klux Klan or a skinhead group In fact fewer than 5 percent of identifiable offenders are members of organized hate groups Yet rather than being an individual crime hate crime represents an assault against all members of stigmatized and marginalized communities To fully understand the phenomenon of hate crime and reduce its incidence it is necessary to clearly define the term itself to examine the victims and the offenders and to evaluate the consequences and harms of hate crimes This comprehensive five volume set carefully addresses the disturbing variety and incidence of hate crimes exposing their impacts on the broader realms of crime punishment individual communities and society The contributing authors and editors pay critical attention to cutting edge topics such as online hate crimes hate based music anti Latino hostilities Islamaphobia hate crimes in the War on Terror school based anti hate initiatives and more The final volume of Hate Crimes provides valuable food for thought on possible legislative educational social policy or community organizational responses to the varied forms of hate crime Clarifies the ongoing debate regarding what behaviors fall under the umbrella of hate crime and which classes of victims should be included Examines the often overlooked community effect consequences of hate crime Includes material that addresses hate motivated crime directed toward women and the homeless community Offers eye opening insights derived from an interview with a hate crime offender     Black Issues in Higher Education ,2005-02     Visions and Missions Jay Moldenhauer-Salazar,1999     Included in Sociology Jeffrey Chuan-che Chin,Catherine White Berheide,Dennis Rome,2002 A practice oriented volume written by sociology faculty for their colleagues and others who care about the retention and success of students of color in the discipline s gateway courses     Current Index to Journals in Education ,1999     Organization & Governance in Higher Education M.

Christopher Brown, 2000 Comprises a collection of 40 readings to aid in understanding the multiple nuances of how colleges or postsecondary educational institutions are organized governed and administered Areas addressed are classic organization theory traditional administrative and governance models campus climate and an Excellent Teaching in the Excellent University Jerome Rabow, 2006 Utilizing and widening the research of Alfred North Whitehead Page Smith Leslie Fiedler Peter Berger Goldsmit and Wilson among others Professor Rabow posits an original research voice challenging the recurrent university emphasis on research at the expense of teaching He and colleagues discuss the institutional structural and cultural barriers to excellent teaching in elite universities Essays explore how these barriers can be overcome and the teaching strategies necessary for success Finally and perhaps most importantly a number of essays address the diversity of student population faculty and administration in such a manner as to no longer marginalize these constituent groups The book is divided into three sections 1 Contradictions in the Professional Role and the College Classroom 2 Preparing for the 21st century 3 Multiculturalism in Preparing for the 21st Century Excellence and Character This work will stimulate a deep discussion of elitism in outstanding universities and the way in which professors and students of color continue to be disenfranchised It also demonstrates some of the processes by which this alienation can be overcome by everyone Recommended for research libraries and upper division courses Dean Joseph Stevenson Jackson State University Jerome Rabow is a senior faculty member and considered by his peers to be a major voice in the sociology of Education He is also a very successful teacher of undergraduates Texas Journal on Civil Liberties & Civil Rights, 2013 Research at Grass Roots A. S. De Vos, 2002 This edition attempts to delineate the main differences between the social sciences and the human professions and the interplay between them the interplay between scientific theory and professional research and more

Confronting Institutionalized Racism in Higher Education Dianne Ramdeholl, Jaye Jones, 2022-03-22 This book chronicles the experiences of faculty at predominantly white higher education institutions PWI by centering voices of racialized faculty across North America Drawing on Critical Race Theory and critical feminist and auto ethnographic approaches the text analyzes those narratives situating people's words in a landscape of institutionalized racism within higher education In order to support newer under represented faculty administrators committed to supporting faculty and doctoral students interested in a future in higher education the book offers strategies and implications for institutional reform and anti racist faculty organizing survival in academia Despite claims by university administrations about commitments to diversity this book demonstrates otherwise offering counter narratives from racialized faculty members who share their struggles Equity and Excellence in Higher Education Alan R. Sadovnik, 1994 Compensatory higher education programs developed as part of the liberal educational reforms of the 1960s and 1970s Their goal was to compensate for unequal pre college education and provide equal opportunities for economically and educationally disadvantaged students This book provides a sociological and historical analysis of the rise and fall of one educational opportunity program that began as an off campus branch of a state college in the late 1960s moved to the main campus in the late 1970s and was eliminated in 1983 The analysis relates to the larger policy questions in higher education with special reference to issues of equity and excellence
