Challenging The Impossible Discovering Beautiful Trophies For Jesus:

Challenging the Impossible Joe Fauss, 2005 Although the American penal system was originally designed to rehabilitate prisoners so they can rejoin society as productive citizens the sad reality is that budget cuts mandatory sentencing and overcrowding have contributed to the virtual disappearance of rehabilitation in today's prisons This inspirational book details how the author founded Calvary Commission to offer rehabilitation and a ray of hope for troubled lives that the system has largely failed

Tourism and Difficult Histories in Japan Richard Sharpley, Kumi Kato, 2025-12-31 This book explores the relationship between tourism and difficult histories in Japan More specifically it considers the manner in which places associated with past dark events are presented and interpreted for tourists In so doing it seeks to identify the extent to which tourism contributes to enhancing mutual understanding as a stated objective of Japanese tourism policy The book presents a range of tourist destinations which offer the opportunity to consider dark events in Japanese history in the context of broader contemporary debates surrounding how such events should be remembered and the contribution of these tourist destinations to peace and reconciliation Case studies include both well and lesser known destinations related to the Pacific War from a comparison of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki Peace Atomic Bomb Museums to an island where poison gas was manufactured and a former copper mine in which prisoners of war worked during 1944 1945 Other case studies focus on disaster sites contentious industrial heritage controversial Hansen's disease leprosy sanatoria and more This significant volume contributes to an understanding of the relationship between tourism and difficult histories in Japan This will appeal widely across disciplines including Tourism Asian Studies Geography War and Reconciliation Studies Peace Studies and International Relations
