responding effectively to destabilizing and often violence laden conflicts Among the countries discussed in detail are Turkey Pakistan Morocco Congo Jordan Indonesia Russia and the former Soviet Union Iraq and India An impressive array of experts assess strategies that go against the grain strategies to rightsize and even downsize states by changing their external and internal borders Typically this means opposing prevailing prejudices against partition and separatist solutions as well as paying high political costs in the short run for more manageable political problems in the long run Understanding the conditions under which such strategies can be entertained and successfully implemented is as difficult and as important as making this kind of option available to beleaguered states in a complex and rapidly changing world Iraqi Foreign Policy
