Magyar,1994-08 Global Security Concerns Karl P. Magyar,2010 Dr Magyar has assembled a group of experts on military issues to ponder global security concerns for the twenty first century The writers of this study use the lessons of the past to identify what issues will propel states to rely on violent means instead of peaceful procedures to achieve their objectives This work also offers a background on each topic identifies areas where conflicts likely will occur and measures the possibility of peaceful resolution of issues Publisher s website Air University Press publications 2004 Air University (U.S.). Tubbs,1997 Military intervention short of full scale war is not a new phenomenon as a means of pursuing national interests However with the end of the cold war military intervention has taken a new twist in the form of peace operations The U S Air Force in particular is being used as a tool of national policy in peace enforcement operations with increasing regularity Currently the USAF is involved in the conflict in the former Yugoslavia and maintains an air presence in both Turkey and Saudi Arabia to control the Iraqi repression of its civilian population This raises a fundamental question about when and how airpower should be used as an effective coercive force in peace enforcement operations Peace enforcement is a military intervention in an on going conflict which uses military force to coerce one or more belligerents to comply with mandated restrictions The purpose of this intervention is to create the proper security conditions such that other peace efforts such as humanitarian relief and diplomatic peacemaking can help the belligerents resolve the conflict without the use of force This thesis uses PROVIDE COMFORT in northern Iraq and UNITAF UNISOM II in Somalia as case studies to examine how airpower influences peace enforcement operations Abstract The Journal of African Policy Studies ,1998 Journal of African Policy Studies ,1998 Battlefield of the Future Barry R. Schneider, Lawrence E. Grinter,1995 This is a book about strategy and warfighting in the midst of a revolution in military affairs as the world moves into the twenty first century The book is composed of 10 essays which treat topics such as military operations against a NBC arming sponsor of terrorism and intervention NASTI state military strategy information warfare biological warfare and the revolution in military affairs RMA The authors are either professional military officers or civilian professionals who specialize in national security issues The book's purpose is to focus attention on the operational strategy and threat challenges that will confront US national security decision makers as they face some of the battlefield of the future
