Challenge and response : anticipating US military security concerns , United States Government Information ,1994 AU Press, Your Air and Space Power Publisher, 2003 ,2003 Global Security Concerns Karl P. Magyar,2010 Dr Magyar has assembled a group of experts on military issues to ponder global security concerns for the twenty first century The writers of this study use the lessons of the past to identify what issues will propel states to rely on violent means instead of peaceful procedures to achieve their objectives This work also offers a background on each topic identifies areas where conflicts likely will occur and measures the possibility of peaceful resolution of issues Publisher s website Women and Military Service Margaret Conrad Devilbiss,1990 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States. Superintendent of Documents,1994 February issue includes Appendix entitled Directory of United States Government periodicals and subscription publications September issue includes List of depository libraries June and December issues include semiannual index Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1994

Challenge and Response Karl P. Magyar,1994 In this collection of essays the contributors examine the implications of the formal dissolution of the Soviet Union and the Warsaw Pact on planning for future military threats They attempt to identify the nature and source of the most likely future threats to global security Part I contains a broad review of the major determinants of international change Part II analyzes specific situations the changing nature of warfare and potential responses to emerging challenges AU Press Publications Air University (U.S.). Press,2003 U.S. Naval Institute Proceedings United States Naval Institute,1995 Keeping the Peace John S. Clark,1997 During the Cold War the United Nations developed the mission termed peacekeeping to help manage conflict These peace operations helped save millions of lives prevented conflicts from escalating and provided an environment for the political settlement of disputes despite the superpower conflict In the aftermath of the Cold War the United Nations found itself freer to act than at any time in its history and the demands placed on the organization quickly outstripped its ability to cope This thesis examines the role of regional organizations in the conduct of peacekeeping It asks if the international community s singular focus on the United Nations as the vehicle for peacekeeping prevented the regional organizations from contributing more to international security Furthermore if the regional organizations could contribute significantly to international peace then what role should the Defense Department play in supporting these efforts Regional organizations have conducted peacekeeping operations in the past with mixed results This thesis examines the intervention by the Organization of American States OAS into the Dominican Republic in 1965 the OAS role in the Central American peace process in the late 1980s and the intervention by the Economic Community of West African States into Liberia in 1990 These operations illustrate several salient features of regional organizations conducting peacekeeping This study concludes that in order for peacekeepers to achieve their mandate it is critical to possess strong political will and a minimum of operational support Furthermore regional organizations run the gamut in both political will and operational capability Their performance indicates that when their national interests are at stake the regionals demonstrate the required political will to persevere in a mission Furthermore they indicate an increasingly strong determination to participate in peacekeeping missions American Foreign Policy and Treaty Index ,1996 Conflict Quarterly ,1994 Peacekeeping Peter Leslie Jones,Bradley Runions,1999 Battlefield of the Future Barry R. Schneider, Lawrence E. Grinter,1995 This is a book about strategy and warfighting in the midst of a revolution in military affairs as the world moves into the twenty first century The book is composed of 10 essays which treat topics such as military operations against a NBC arming sponsor of terrorism and intervention NASTI state military strategy information warfare biological warfare and the revolution in military affairs RMA The authors are either professional military officers or civilian professionals who specialize in national security issues The book's purpose is to focus attention on the operational strategy and threat challenges that will confront US national security decision makers as they face some of the battlefield of the future Beyond Gunboat Diplomacy James O. Tubbs,1997 Military intervention short of full scale war is not a new phenomenon as a means of pursuing national interests However with the end of the cold war military intervention has taken a new twist in the form of peace operations The U S Air Force in particular is being used as a tool of national policy in peace enforcement operations with increasing regularity Currently the USAF is involved in the conflict in the former Yugoslavia and maintains an air presence in both Turkey and Saudi Arabia to control the Iraqi repression of its civilian population This raises a fundamental question about when and how airpower should be used as an effective coercive force in peace enforcement operations Peace enforcement is a military intervention in an on going conflict which uses military force to coerce one or more belligerents to comply with mandated restrictions The purpose of this intervention is to create the proper security conditions such that other peace efforts such as humanitarian relief and diplomatic peacemaking can help the belligerents resolve the conflict without the use of force This thesis uses PROVIDE COMFORT in northern Iraq and UNITAF UNISOM II in Somalia as case studies to examine how airpower influences peace enforcement operations Abstract The Journal of African Policy Studies ,1998 Journal of African Policy Studies ,1998 Journal of Third World Studies ,1994 Consists of abstracts of selected papers from various conferences dealing with the third world and its problems

Nonlethal Weapons Robert J. Bunker,1997 The purpose of this paper is to promote understanding of and research into a new category of weapons designated nonlethal by the military services These weapons are also classified as less than lethal or less lethal by law enforcement agencies National security experts consider these weapons increasingly important in the post war Cold War era This type of weapon has been used throughout history but was given new emphasis during the Vietnam War era Law enforcement agencies and Army national guard units relying upon traditional forms of politico military force were ineffective in countering US domestic civil unrest As similar types of conflict now many magnitudes greater seem to dominate international politics since the end of the Cold War this type of weapon takes on increasing importance page ix
