Challenge And Promise Of A Catholic University:

The Challenge and Promise of a Catholic University Theodore Martin Hesburgh, 1994 This is a position paper with contributions from a range of academics on the question of how a Catholic university can preserve its character while avoiding both secularisation and insular sectarianism Hesburgh of Notre Dame Todd C. Ream, Michael J. James, 2022-11-25 This volume is the first comprehensive assessment of the life and legacy of Father Theodore Hesburgh 1917 2015 an educator priest public servant and long serving President of the University of Notre Dame Despite being a transformative figure in Catholic higher education who led the University of Notre Dame for 35 years and wielded influence with US presidents on civil rights and other charged issues of his era secular accounts of history often neglect to assess the efforts of religious figures such as Hesburgh In this volume the editors and their authors turn a fair minded but critical eye to the priest's record to evaluate where he fits into the long development of Catholic higher education and Catholics role in American public life Seeing the Light Samuel Schuman, 2010-01-18 Samuel Schuman examines the place of religious colleges and universities particularly evangelical Protestant institutions in contemporary American higher education Many faith based schools are flourishing They have rigorous academic standards impressive student recruitment ambitious philanthropic goals and well maintained campuses and facilities Yet much of the U S higher education community ignores them or accords them little respect Seeing the Light considers instead what can be learned from the viability of these institutions The book begins with a history of post secondary U S education from the perspective of the religious traditions from which it arose After focusing briefly on nonevangelical institutions Schuman next looks at three Roman Catholic institutions the College of New Rochelle Villanova University and Thomas Aquinas College He then profiles evangelical colleges and universities in detail discovering the factors contributing to their success These institutions range from nationally recognized to little known from rich to poor with both highly selective and open admission requirements Interviews with key administrators faculty and students reveal the challenges the successes and the goals of these institutions Schuman concludes that these schools Baylor University Anderson University New Saint Andrews College Calvin College North Park University George Fox University Westmont College Oral Roberts University Northwestern College and Wheaton College and others like them offer important and timely lessons for the broader higher education community Handing on the Faith Sutton, Matthew, Portier, William, 2014-04-10 Annual Volume 59 of the College Theology Society this book of collected essays will explore the theme of how theology and catechesis interact Is theology handing on the faith or is the vocation of the theologian something more different What are the challenges and convergences for theology and catechesis in the classroom Consisting of fifteen essays originally delivered as papers at the College Theology Society annual meeting in Omaha NE in May 2013 this book will offer the reflections and analyses of teachers across a broad spectrum of experience background and personal convictions vis vis the importance of catechesis in the college classroom Religion

Index Two ,1996 Curriculum Challenges for Universities James Nyland,David Davies,2022-03-01 This book develops a progressive program of engagement with issues problems and critical thinking which helps universities and students understand and engage with some of the key issues of our time It focuses on curriculum concerns and presents a sustained and critical analysis and dialogue about knowledge culture and ways of seeing important issues This book provides critical and analytical insights into the importance of the emergence of mass higher education into public awareness It explores what is termed contested knowledge as part of modern students experiences and expectations By broadcasting some of the future prospects for a democratic university especially in relation to its communities it highlights the need to grasp the significance of global change and instability in teaching and learning and how an adequate curriculum in higher education can be constructed to address the issues that arise Resources in Education ,1996 Go Forth and Do Good Wilson D. Miscamble,2003 Although the first proper Notre Dame commencement conferring degrees on two candidates took place in 1849 General William Tecumseh Sherman was Notre Dame s first graduation speaker with a truly national reputation He attended Notre Dame s ceremony in 1865 just months after accepting the surrender of General Joseph E Johnston s Confederate army Sherman whose sons had been students at Notre Dame came less to give an address than to utter words of thanks for the kindness shown to his family who had found refuge in the area during the war When prevailed upon to speak he offered some extemporaneous remarks calling on Notre Dame graduates and students to be ready at all times to perform bravely the battle of life The American Benedictine Review ,2021 Conflicting Allegiances Michael L. Budde,John Wesley Wright,2004 Boldly challenges Christians to rethink liberal assumptions about higher education envisioning a church centered education The Future of Religious Colleges Paul John Dovere,2002 Building on competent historical and analytical studies of the past decade the contributors consider the state of religious education generally explore the relationship between religious colleges and their sponsoring churches probe a number of successful educational models and examine the influence of public policy on religious colleges Heart of the World, Center of the Church David L. Schindler,1996 David Schindler argues for a fresh understanding of the relationship between church and world seeking to avoid the two theological extremes of the liberationist approach and the neo conservative liberal approach that are currently tearing the Church apart Crisis ,1995 A journal of lay Catholic opinion Seattle University Law Review ,1999 Hofstra Labor & Employment Law Journal ,2004 Journal for the Scientific Study of Religion ,2004 Official journal of the Society for the Scientific Study of Religion JSSR was founded in 1949 by students of religion and of social science in order to stimulate and communicate significant scientific research on religious institutions and experience The Vatican and Permanent Neutrality Marshall J. Breger,Herbert R. Reginbogin,2022-03-22 The essays in this book cover a fast paced 150 years of Vatican diplomacy starting from the fall of the Papal States in 1870 to the present day They trace the transformation of the Vatican from a state like any other to an entity uniquely providing spiritual and moral sustenance in world affairs In particular the book details the Holy See s use of neutrality as a tool and the principal statecraft in its diplomatic portmanteau This concept of permanent neutrality as codified in the Lateran Treaties of 1929 is a central concept adding to the Vatican s uniqueness and as a result the analysis of its policies does not easily fit within standard international relations or foreign policy scholarship These essays consider in detail the Vatican s history with permanent neutrality and its application in diplomacy toward delicate situations as for instance vis a vis Fascist Italy Nazi Germany and Imperial Japan but also in the international relations of the Cold War in debates about nuclear non proliferation or outreach toward the third world including Cuba and Venezuela The book also considers the ineluctable tension between pastoral teachings and realpolitik as the church faces a reckoning with its history

Effective Educational Leadership Nigel Bennett,Megan Crawford,Marion Cartwright,2003-01-14 This work is for providers and students of postgraduate level courses in educational management for leadership development and provision for headteacher induction programmes California Management Review ,1958 The Catholic University Bulletin ,1915
