Current Challenges of European

Integration Andreas Kellerhals, Tobias Baumgartner, 2021-08-24 Crises have long been a recurring feature of European integration In many cases further steps toward integration have only been possible under the pressure of such crises However in recent years the EU has faced multiple overlapping crises at times calling the integration process itself into question In 2015 the eurozone crisis escalated to the point where for the first time a member state faced the possibility of exiting the eurozone At the same time the massive influx of refugees into the EU exposed significant shortcomings in both the Schengen area and the common asylum policy Finally the British referendum on 23 June 2016 resulted in a majority vote in favor of Brexit marking the first ever departure of a member state from the EU Against this backdrop the 12th Network Europe conference examined the numerous challenges facing the EU as well as potential future scenarios for European integration The publication includes contributions from Andr S Berne Jelena Ceranic Perisic Viorel Cibotaru Alex de Ruyter Ivana Kunda Tobias Lock Lee McGowan Peter Christian M ller Graff Tatjana Muravska and Attila Vincze Network Europe was founded in 2003 by the Europa Institute at the University of Zurich with support from the Swiss government It serves as a forum for scholarly exchange on legal and political aspects of European integration bringing together researchers from across Europe Crises and Challenges for the European Union Mark Rhinard, Neill Nugent, William E.

Paterson, 2023-10-19 The crises of the European Union extend beyond the challenges of Covid 19 Brexit the Eurozone and mass migration cutting to the core of the EU itself Taking a structural rather than event based approach this text unpacks all aspects of the EU in crisis and analyses the implications of these crises for the EU and its member states This edition argues that crises and challenges are no longer unique and discreet events facing the EU but rather they are better understood as sustained conditions that have changed the relationships between member states the functioning of institutions the nature of public engagement and the prospects for integration Chapters broach institutional issues as well as specific policy challenges covering questions of legitimacy and leadership and offering a full chapter on democracy and Euroscepticism Working within both historical and theoretical frameworks this is the perfect companion for those studying and researching contemporary challenges facing the EU European integration political crisis management and transboundary crises more broadly
