Challenge Road Women The Eritrean Revo:

The Challenge Road Amrit Wilson, 2022-02-06 This book first published in 1991 analyses the role of women in the Eritrean struggle for independence Emerging from a semi feudal world these women peasants and pastoralists student activists and workers from the cities participated fully in the Eritrean revolution They have organized cells gathered intelligence carried out clandestine missions set up and ran health and education systems and fought on the front line and in transforming themselves they have transformed Eritrea Blood, Land, and Sex Lyda Favali, Roy Pateman, 2003-06-18 In Eritrea state traditional and religious laws equally prevail but any of these legal systems may be put into play depending upon the individual or individuals involved in a legal dispute Because of conflicting laws it has been difficult for Eritreans to come to a consensus on what constitutes their legal system In Blood Land and Sex Lyda Favali and Roy Pateman examine the roles of the state ethnic groups religious groups and the international community in several key areas of Eritrean law blood feud or murder land tenure gender relations marriage prostitution rape and female genital surgery Favali and Pateman explore the intersections of the various laws and discuss how change can be brought to communities where legal ambiguity prevails often to the grave harm of women and other powerless individuals This significant book focuses on how Eritrea and other newly emerging democracies might build pluralist legal systems that will be acceptable to an ethnically and religiously diverse population Democratization and Women's Grassroots Movements Jill M. Bystydzienski, Joti Sekhon, 1999-07-22 The book illustrates how community based actions programs and organizations that allow women to determine their lives and participate in decision making contribute to the creation of a civil society and thus enhance democracy The case studies show how participation in grassroots movements promotes women's involvement in their organizations communities and in societal institutions as it influences state policy and empowers women in personal relationships Cultural Diversity in the Armed Forces Joseph L. Soeters, Jan Van der Meulen, 2007-01-24 This book addresses the different ways in which armed forces around the world respond to the cultural diversity of their parent societies ethnicity and gender in particular in order to enhance their quality and legitimacy Women and War in the 21st Century Margaret D. Sankey, 2018-08-17 Twenty three countries currently allow women to serve in front line combat positions and others with a high likelihood of direct enemy contact This book examines how these decisions did or did not evolve in 47 countries This timely and fascinating book explores how different countries have determined to allow women in the military to take on combat roles whether out of a need for personnel a desire for the military to reflect the values of the society or the opinion that women improve military effectiveness or in contrast have disallowed such a move on behalf of the state In addition many countries have insurgent or dissident factions in that have led armed resistance to state authority in which women have been present requiring national militaries and peacekeepers to engage them incorporate them or disarm and deradicalize them This country by country analysis of the role of women in conflicts includes insightful essays on such countries as Afghanistan China Germany Iraq

Israel Russia and the United States Each essay provides important background information to help readers to understand the cultural and political contexts in which women have been integrated into their countries militaries have engaged in combat during the course of conflict and have come to positions of political power that affect military decisions Narrating War and Peace in Africa Solimar Otero, 2010 Narrating War and Peace in Africa interrogates conventional representations of Africa and African culture mainly in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries with an emphasis on portrayals of conflict and peace While Africa has experienced political and social turbulence throughout its history more recent conflicts seem to reinforce the myth of barbarism across the continent in Nigeria Rwanda Somalia Sierra Leone Uganda Kenya Mozambique Chad South Africa Zimbabwe and Sudan The essays in this volume address reductive and stereotypical assumptions of postcolonial violence as tribal in nature and offer instead various perspectives across disciplinary boundaries that foster a less fetishized more contextualized understanding of African war peace and memory Through their geographical historical and cultural scope and diversity the chapters in Narrating War and Peace in Africa aim to challenge negative stereotypes that abound in relation to Africa in general and to its wars and conflicts in particular encouraging a shift to more balanced and nuanced representations of the continent and its political and social climates Contributors Ann Albuyeh Zermarie Deacon Alicia C Decker Am na Mo nfar Kayode Omoniyi Ogunfolabi Sabrina Parent Susan Rasmussen Michael Sharp Cheryl Sterling Hetty ter Haar Melissa Tully Pamela Wadende Metasebia Woldemariam Jonathan Zilberg Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin Hetty ter Haar is an independent researcher in England To Fight and Learn Leslie David Gottesman, Leslie Gottesman, 1998 This study examines the remarkable testimony of Eritrea s fighter teachers the teenagers who spent years behind enemy lines teaching peasants and nomads to read and write during Eritrea s independence struggle
