Doing Qualitative Community Research: Lessons For Faculty, Students And Communities Ernest Quimby, 2012 This text describes important considerations for conceptualizing designing and carrying out qualitative research in community settings The book covers various research aspects with respect to teaching learning practicing and assessing Readers will gain insights into qualitative methodology as a vital stand alone approach and find it to be an illuminating supplement to quantitative methodology and a core component of mixed methods studies Some key questions answered by the book are What s in it for us What are collaborations and partnerships How can knowledge and skills to achieve mean

Resources in Education , 1998 International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink, George W. Noblit, 2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education

Marginality and Difference in Education and Beyond Michael Jonathan Reiss, Renée DePalma, Elizabeth Atkinson, 2007 This collection brings together analyses from a range of educational contexts around the world of the ways in which notions of identity and difference belonging and exclusion are constructed within and beyond the context of education Three key themes link the chapters within the book current policy and practice in education and educational research educational imperialism and its legacy cultures and sub cultures within and beyond educational contexts Part One Educational Policy and Practice Internal Colonisations explores what might be described as the internal colonization of education by a certain set of hegemonic ideas and practices practices which the authors in this book set out collectively to resist In Part Two Educational Imperialism and its Legacy the focus turns to external imperialism within education In Part Three Culture and Subculture Within and Beyond Education notions of space place and identity are interwoven with linguistic symbolic and material cultural markers The contributors are Elizabeth Atkinson Stephen Ball Ren e DePalma Stephen Dobson David Gough Ruby Greene Jennifer Lavia Ahmad Nazari Carrie Paechter Michael Reiss John Storey Takako Takano Maddalena Taras Carol Vincent and Deborah Youdell The book is intended for academics for students working at Masters level and above and for education professionals and policy makers and will also appeal to scholars working in education and those involved in interdisciplinary work or working in the fields of sociology cultural studies and sociolinguistics
