Challenging The Boundaries Of Reform:

Challenging the Boundaries of Reform W. J. Conroy, 1990 Recently after eight years in office the socialist mayor of Burlington Vermont Bernard Sanders stepped down This is a case study of the achievements and failures of Sanders radical administration amidst a conservative trend nationally an unsympathetic state government and a hostile city council W J Conroy analyzes the reforms that Burlington s radicals attempted He identifies four questions regarding Burlington s experience that resonated beyond the city s boundaries and are addressed in this book How much autonomy did local government possess Were the needs and constraints of the business community the primary forces that circumscribed local autonomy Did the non economic demands of the new social movements Burlington s ecologists peace activists and gays and lesbians face different constraints than did the economic reforms and thus have a greater chance for enactment What lessons can be drawn from the case of Burlington that would aid the American left in its struggle to capture both government and civil society Through several case studies Conroy documents the frustration that Sanders and the progressive Coalition endured over issues such as waterfront development the building of the four lane Southern Connector and alternate sources of taxation He analyzes the economic development tax foreign affairs and gender policy initiatives of Burlington s left from a post Marxist perspective and he offers a controversial localist strategy to revitalize the American left Author note W J Conroy is Assistant Professor of Political Science at Kentucky Wesleyan College Place Matters Peter Dreier, John H. Mollenkopf, Todd Swanstrom, 2004 Analyzes the problematic trends facing America s cities and older suburbs and challenges us to put America s urban crisis back on the national agenda Power in the City Marion Orr, Valerie C. Johnson, 2008 A collection of thirteen essays considered classics in the field of urban politics from leading scholar Clarence Stone with new essays by the editors and by Stone himself that contextualize the impact of his previous works and suggest new directions for researchers The City Builders Susan S. Fainstein, 2001 This revised edition examines major redevelopment efforts in New York and London to uncover the forces behind these investment cycles and the role that public policy can play in moderating market instability It chronicles the progress of three development projects in New York and three in London Left Coast City Richard Edward DeLeon, 1992 This book provides insight into how San Francisco s progressive coalition developed between 1975 and 1991 what stresses emerged to cause splintering within the coalition and how it fell apart in the 1991 mayoral campaign DeLeon analyzes the success and failures of the progressive movement as it toppled the business dominated pro growth regime imposed stringent controls on growth and development and achieved political control of city hall True Blues Adam Hilton, 2021-06-11 This book examines the transformation of the Democratic Party from the 1930s to the Obama administration Women Migrant Workers in China's Economic Reform F. Xu, 2000-09-19 Women Migrant Workers in China s Economic Reform studies unmarried women migrant workers in China As international migrants in China s richest province they work in silk one of China s oldest and most symbolically charged industries Through extensive interviews and a wide ranging interpretation of the secondary literature this book brings an interdisciplinary approach to its study of power and identity Gender class and local identities matter in the factories and streets of a one industry town and municipal and factory leaders seek to rework these over shifting forces to build a low cost reliable labour force The women in question seek to rework these disadvantages by the same forces have other aspirations Vermont History ,1992 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Bureau Men, Settlement Women Camilla Stivers,2000 Although the two intertwined at first the contributions of these settlement women to the development of the administrative state have been largely lost as the new field of public administration evolved from the research bureaus and diverged from social work Camilla Stivers now shows how public administration came to be dominated not just by science and business but also by masculinity calling into question much that is taken for granted about the profession and creating an alternative vision of public service Feminist Engagement with International Criminal Law Eithne Dowds,2020-01-23 This work introduces and further develops the feminist strategy of norm transfer the proposal that feminist informed standards created at the level of international criminal law make their way into domestic contexts Situating this strategy within the complementarity regime of the International Criminal Court ICC it is argued that there is an opportunity for dialogue and debate around the contested aspects of international norms as opposed to uncritical acceptance The book uses the crime of rape as a case study and offers a new perspective on one of the most contentious debates within international and domestic criminal legal feminism the relationship between consent and coercion in the definition of rape In analysing the ICC definition of rape it is argued that the omission of consent as an explicit element is flawed Arguing that the definition is in need of revision to explicitly include a context sensitive notion of consent the book goes further setting out draft legislative amendments to the ICC Elements of Crimes definition of rape and its Rules of Procedure and Evidence Turning its attention to the domestic landscape the book drafts amendments to the United Kingdom UK Sexual Offences Act 2003 and to the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 thereby showing how the revised version of the ICC definition can be applied in context of the UK Mexico's Democratic Challenges Andrew D. Selee,Jacqueline Peschard,2010 This book broadens our understanding of democracy in Mexico beyond the electoral arena and identifies some of the main challenges for defending and expanding democratic rights Neil Harvey New Mexico State University The Centrelink Experiment John Halligan,Jules Wills,2008-12-01 Centrelink was established in 1997 as part of the Howard government s bold experiment in re framing social policy and re shaping service delivery Centrelink was the embodiment of a key tenet of the Howard vision for public service a specialised service delivery provider agency separated from the policy functions of the purchaser Carved out of a monolithic Department of Social Security Centrelink was established along business lines operating 320 service centres and delivering payments to 10 million Australians. Although enjoying monopoly provider status the organisation was required to deliver services to many different clients on behalf of its purchasing departments up to 25 in total under the terms of quasi contractual service agreements. It was meant to demonstrate a greater level of both transparency and accountability for the administration of payments amounting to over 60 billion of Commonwealth expenditure. For many years there was a real buzz around the Centrelink experiment and staff and clients were generally enthusiastic about the transformation. However after around eight years the experiment was reined in and Centrelink was placed under closer ministerial direction and under a new managing department. The experiment continues but its trajectory reflects the different pressures impacting on such dedicated services delivery agencies.

John Halligan, Professor of Government at the University of Canberra is a foremost Australian expert on public sector governance and has published extensively on the evolution form and behaviour of the public sectors in Australia and overseas. This volume is the culmination of an exhaustive empirical study of the origins and experience of the Centrelink Experiment. I commend this book to researchers, policy practitioners and students with an interest in policy innovation, change management and the realpolitik of public sector reform.

University-Community Partnerships for Promoting Social Responsibility in Higher Education Enakshi Sengupta, Patrick Blessinger, Craig Mahoney, 2020-07-24. Modernizing Schools Graham Butt, Helen M. Gunter, 2007-08. This book draws together research which looks at the challenge of the modernisation of education and considers underpinning concepts and policies.

Exploring Education Alan R. Sadovnik, Peter Cookson, Jr., Susan Semel, Ryan Coughlan, 2017-10-10. This much anticipated fifth edition of Exploring Education offers an alternative to traditional foundations texts by combining a point of view analysis with primary source readings. Pre and in service teachers will find a solid introduction to the foundations disciplines: history, philosophy, politics and sociology of education and their application to educational issues including school organization and teaching, curriculum and pedagogic practices, education and inequality and school reform and improvement. This edition features substantive updates including additions to the discussion of neo liberal educational policy, recent debates about teacher diversity, updated data and research and new selections of historical and contemporary readings. At a time when foundations of education are marginalized in many teacher education programs and teacher education reform pushes scripted approaches to curriculum and instruction, Exploring Education helps teachers to think critically about the what and why behind the most pressing issues in contemporary education.

Black Politics in Conservative America Marcus D. Pohlmann, 1999. In this data rich study Pohlmann illuminates the institutionalized economic discrimination that functions to keep African Americans from moving ahead and delineates policy alternatives that offer hope and stimulate discussion      Governance in a Globalizing World Joseph S. Nye, 2000 Far from being another short lived buzzword globalization refers to real changes These changes have profound impacts on culture economics security the environment and hence on the fundamental challenges of governance This book asks three fundamental questions How are patterns of globalization currently evolving How do these patterns affect governance And how might globalism itself be governed The first section maps the trajectory of globalization in several dimensions economic cultural environmental and political For example Graham Allison speculates about the impact on national and international security and William C Clark develops and evaluates the concepts of environmental globalization The second section examines the impact of globalization on governance within individual nations including China struggling countries in the developing world and the industrialized democracies and includes Elaine Kamarck s assessment of global trends in public sector reform The third section discusses efforts to improvise new approaches to governance including the role of non governmental institutions the global dimensions of information policy and Dani Rodrik s speculation on global economic governance      The Scots Digest of the Cases Decided in the Supreme Courts of Scotland John Condie Stewart Sandeman, 1905      Political Process and the Movement Against Free Trade in Canada, 1981-1988 Jeffrey McKelvey Ayres, 1994
