Changing University Teaching Reflections On Creating Educational Technologies:

Changing University Teaching Terry Evans, Daryl Nation, 2012-10-12 Behind the hype of the virtual university lies real change in the way practitioners approach university teaching This book focuses on the changes to teaching both on and off campus that have either come from or themselves influenced the development of educational technologies EBOOK: Towards Strategic Staff Development in Higher Education Richard Blackwell, Paul Blackmore, 2003-07-16 This book focuses on strategic staff development in higher education a sector in which it has been largely viewed as an operational activity with little organizational relevance The book demonstrates how staff development needs to be based on modern theories of organizational learning aligning itself with institutional and departmental needs as well as the wants and needs of individual staff The book takes a broad definition of staff development and seeks to cover all aspects of the academic role and the interests of all staff The traditional focus on teaching and learning is covered but not to the exclusion of other aspects or the interface between different roles In order to achieve a strategic focus authors are drawn from a range of backgrounds including senior staff with strategic leadership roles The book is therefore directed to a wider readership than the community of staff development professionals and designed partly to challenge the dominant discourse and established priorities of staff developers Towards Strategic Staff Development in Higher Education seeks to combine scholarly review of relevant literature with practical strategies and suggestions for the intended readership principally senior staff heads of department and staff development professionals Online Learning and Teaching with Technology David Murphy, Rob Walker, Graham Webb, 2013-10-31 In the 21st century technology has become an essential part of teaching and learning This manual provides practical advice on teaching in a wide range of technologies including the internet and multimedia packages Using case studies to illustrate the key concepts this book aims to promote student learning and understanding and show educators how to use technology to motivate learners and encourage productive interaction Encyclopedia of Distance Learning Howard, Caroline, Boettcher, Judith V., Justice, Lorraine, Schenk, Karen D., Rogers, Patricia L., Berg, Gary A., 2005-04-30 This encyclopedia offers the most comprehensive coverage of the issues concepts trends and technologies of distance learning More than 450 international contributors from over 50 countries Provided by publisher Reflective Teaching, 2004 A Case Study of the Implementation Process of Web-based Distance Education Programs in Zhongshan University, China Hongyi Lan, 2007 Online Assessment, Measurement, and Evaluation David D. Williams, Mary Hricko, Scott L. Howell, 2006 Online Assessment Measurement and Evaluation Emerging Practices provides a view of the possibilities and challenges facing online educators and evaluators in the 21st Century As technology evolves and online measurement and assessment follow Online Assessment Measurement and Evaluation Emerging Practices uses established evaluation principles to employ new tools in evaluation systems that support stakeholders clarify values and definitions of the evaluation methods encourage thought about important questions and refresh the readers memories of contexts and backgrounds This book also adheres to evaluation standards of feasibility propriety utility and accuracy in order to help participants realize that technical issues and methods are only worthwhile when they are in the service of helping people make thoughtful choices

Reclaiming Universities from a Runaway World Melanie Walker, Jon Nixon, 2004 Examines the idea that the defining feature of academic professional identity is the search for understanding This work shows how questions of teaching research and management in universities are also questions about the struggle over deliberative democracy It details how higher education can contribute to building a prosperous society

Encyclopedia of Distance Learning Caroline Howard, 2005 The topic of distance teaching and online learning associated technologies and applications covers a galaxy of ideas concepts issues concerns and opportunities Everything from workforce training to accessing education to digital divide issues and the evolution of distance and online education into a multibillion dollar enterprise is included in the global conversation Certifications degrees workforce training and lifelong learning are all a part of public and private educational institutions Partnerships with for profit businesses the rise of virtual universities within traditional educational systems competition with for profit institutions and issues of quality are part of the regular workday at national and international educational institutions The Encyclopedia of Distance Learning Technologies and Applications edited by Patricia Roger provides a comprehensive coverage of the evolution of distance learning educational programs through distance learning technologies of distance learning program design and implementation program delivery methods distance learning and work force and assessing effectiveness of distance learning programs The Encyclopedia of Distance Learning Technologies and Applications is an excellent resource for comprehensive knowledge and practices in distance learning programs
