Reporting Humanitarian Disasters in a Social Media Age Glenda Cooper, 2018-10-26 From the tsunami to Hurricane Sandy the Nepal earthquake to Syrian refugees defining images and accounts of humanitarian crises are now often created not by journalists but by ordinary citizens using Twitter Facebook YouTube Instagram and Snapchat But how has the use of this content and the way it is spread by social media altered the rituals around disaster reporting the close if not symbiotic relationship between journalists and aid agencies and the kind of crises that are covered Drawing on more than 100 in depth interviews with journalists and aid agency press officers participant observations at the Guardian BBC and Save the Children UK as well as the ordinary people who created the words and pictures that framed these disasters this book reveals how humanitarian disasters are covered in the 21st century and the potential consequences for those who posted a tweet a video or photo without ever realising how far it would go

Entrepreneurship Heidi M. M. Neck, Emma L. L. Murray, Christopher P. Neck, 2024 Branding that Means Business Matt Johnson, Tessa G Misiaszek, 2022-10-25 A revelatory guide on how to build sustain and grow a brand A brand is either beloved or it s noise We live in a fast paced world of immediate gratification where consumers can listen to any song watch any movie or read any article with the touch of a few buttons They are peppered with hyper personalized targeting for products that can be ordered seamlessly and arrive within hours And if your brand isn t the first to come to mind they ll click that button and it ll be delivered by someone else So how do you make sure your brand connects with consumers Branding that Means Business draws from the authors experience and business literature as well as psychology sociology and even anthropology to show readers that while any brand serves the business the mechanisms that enable it are all about connecting with people Readers will learn how to create maintain and operationalize their brand and think creatively about how to differentiate their product and most importantly make consumers fall in love with it Handbook on E-marketing for Tourism Destinations Peter Varlow, 2008 The internet and other new technologies have changed the tourism industry in an unprecedented way and keeping pace has become challenging Online information is now one of the primary influences on consumer decisions in nearly all major markets For example 41 per cent of tourists arriving in Spain in 2007 had booked through the internet and in the United States the number of trips bought online exceeded those purchased offline Such changes are impacting and influencing the way destinations and companies manage and market themselves Advertising and Promotion Chris Hackley, Rungpaka Amy Hackley, 2021-01-27 Now in its fifth edition this popular textbook continues to provide a comprehensive insight into the world of advertising and promotional communications Unique in its approach the authors situate the key concepts of marketing communications from the perspective of advertising agencies and provide insight into what a career within an ad agency might be like Their critical approach grounded in up to date research allows the reader to develop an interdisciplinary understanding of marketing and advertising including business socio cultural media studies and consumer culture theory perspectives Along with striking full colour visual advertisements and illustrations new examples and case studies this fifth edition has been fully updated to include Two brand new chapters on Social Media Advertising and Digital Advertising Commentary on how the COVID 19 pandemic has and will impact advertising The evolving role of advertising agencies in the post digital era Emerging forms of advertising and promotion including the role of influencers
