Who Cares About Parents? Kim Price-Glynn, 2025-11-11 Who cares for parental caregivers The short answer is parenting groups do Who Cares for Parents examines how parenting groups collectively build and contribute significant resources to form a broader care infrastructure for adult family caregivers with children This book looks at the content of care parenting groups provide for parents through comparative research including mothers fathers and nonbinary parents Cases include some of the most recognizable parenting groups in the United States some with vast networks of parent members numbering in the thousands or even millions like the Parent Teacher Association La Leche League and MOMS Club International The book also examines newer and perhaps less well known groups like the City Dads Group the Upper East Side UES Mommas as well as smaller sets of local dads groups and a babysitting co op Can parents in the contemporary United States secure some of the necessary resources to provide care not only for their children but also for themselves through parenting groups The evidence from this research suggests they can Parenting groups have a long history of organizing membership meetings education material resources and advocacy to provide for parents' needs Parenting groups' ideologies and practices often seek broad goals and sometimes include far reaching advocacy innovative solutions and possibilities for what Price Glynn calls strategic parenting and social change Alongside their successes however parenting groups also face challenges of producing narrow and temporary alliances exclusion and exacerbating inequalities Despite their many challenges Price Glynn remains hopeful about the possibilities for non familial and collective care infrastructure like that performed by parent groups Newsletter ,2009 Ebony ,2005-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The ^ARise of Digital Repression Steven Feldstein,2021-04-13 Advances in artificial intelligence mass surveillance disinformation facial recognition and censorship are transforming how authoritarian leaders advance their repressive agendas This is leading to a fundamental reshaping of the relationship between citizen and state In The Rise of Digital Repression Steven Feldstein presents new field research from Thailand the Philippines and Ethiopia to highlight how governments pursue digital strategies of repression based on a range of factors ongoing levels of repression leadership state capacity and technological development As many of these trends are going global Felstein argues that this has major implications for democracies and civil society activists around the world Broadcasting & Cable ,2009-07 Women Architects in India Mary N. Woods,2016-10-04 As the first inclusive study of how women have shaped the modern Indian built environment from the independence struggle until today this book reveals a history that is largely unknown not only in the West but also in India Educated in the 1930s and 1940s the very first women architects designed everything from factories to museums in the post independence period The generations that followed are now responsible for metro systems shopping malls corporate headquarters and IT campuses for a global India But they also design schools cultural centers religious pilgrimage hotels and wildlife sanctuaries Pioneers in conserving historic buildings these women also sustain and resurrect traditional crafts and materials empower rural and marginalized communities and create ecologically sustainable architectures for India Today although women make up a majority in India s ever increasing schools of architecture it is still not easy for them like their Western sisters to find their place in the profession Recounting the work and lives of Indian women as not only architects but also builders and clients opens a new window onto the complexities of feminism modernism and design practice in India and beyond Set in the design centers of Mumbai and Delhi this book is also one of the first histories of architectural education and practice in two very different cities that are now global centers The diversity of practices represented here helps us to imagine other ways to create and build apart from starchitecture And how these women negotiate tradition and modernity at work and at home is crucial for understanding gender and modern architecture in a more global and less Eurocentric context In a country where female emancipation was important for narratives of the independence movement and the new nation state feminism was nonetheless eschewed as divisive and damaging to the nationalist cause Class caste tradition and family restricted but also created opportunities for the very first women architects in India just as they do now for the growing number of young

Congress,2008 Affiliate Marketing For Beginners Tim Murphy,2020-12-29 If you were to ask a random user of the Internet what he or she thought Affiliate Marketing was he or she would likely claim that it was a way of making money online as an intermediary Here people make a commission from a sale or a referral when a visitor to his or her site clicks on a link that directs him or her to a product or page online However as much as there is a lot of truth there Affiliate Marketing does not only have to take place online For example affiliate marketing is also where a plumber gives a client a discount for referring him or her to a new client It is the same concept This kind of marketing happens a lot in the real world but people do not trace or coordinate it as much as is the case with online marketing Business owners can ask their customers how they came to know about them in an effort to learn about their client base but they cannot get as much information as they would be using online tracking The growing online market has made this type of marketing more popular and profitable It has also made it easier to grow and expand whatever type of business an individual is in with the help of numerous professional marketers who will not necessarily appear on their payroll Therefore while its history started long before the invention of the Internet the Internet has transformed it and made it widely available to the masses You will start by learning all about the ins and outs of affiliate marketing and what you need to get your feet wet in the marketing world You will then learn about the importance of choosing the right niche and how to find one that will provide you with a sustainable passive income stream for years to come From there you will learn the key steps to creating a website that will attract the right type of users as well as the importance of SEO and how to ensure that your new website shows up in as many different sets of search results as possible Finally you will learn just what it takes to create the type of quality content that ensures people keeping back for more month after month and year after year Every effort was made to ensure it is full of as much useful information as possible please enjoy Affiliate Marketing Daren H.
