Aroul, 1984 Octavio Paz asserts Eliot Weinberger in his introduction to these Selected Poems is among the last of the modernists who drew their own maps of the world For Latin America's foremost living poet his native Mexico has been the center of a global mandala a cultural configuration that in his life and work he has traced to its furthest reaches to Spain as a young Marxist during the Civil War to San Francisco and New York in the early 1940s to Paris as a surrealist in the postwar years to India and Japan in 1952 and to the East again as his country's ambassador to India from 1962 to 1968 and to various universities in the United States throughout the 1970s A great synthesizer the rich diversity of Paz's thought is shown here in all its astonishing complexity Among the sixty seven selections in this volume a gathering in English of his most essential poems drawn from nearly fifty years work are Muriel Rukeyser's now classic version of Sun Stone and new translations by editor Weinberger of Blanco and Maithuna And since for Paz forever in motion there can be no such thing as a definitive text all the poems have been revised to conform to the poet's most recent changes in the original Spanish Besides those by Rukeyser and Weinberger the translations in the Selected Poems are by G Aroul Elizabeth Bishop Paul Blackburn Lysander Kemp Denise Levertov Mark Strand Charles Tomlinson William Carlos Williams and Monique Fong Wust Selected Poems Eugenio Montale, 1965 Acclaiming the late Eugenio Montale 1897 1981 as one of the most important poets of the contemporary West the Swedish Academy awarded him the 1975 Nobel Prize for Literature This selection introduced by
