North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Lisa Sewell,Kazim Ali,2020-02-25 North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Beyond Lyric and Language is an important new addition to the American Poets in the 21st Century series Like the earlier anthologies this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work Among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Catherine Cucinella on Marilyn Chin Meg Tyler on Fanny Howe Elline Lipkin on Alice Notley Kamran Javadizadeh on Claudia Rankine and many more A companion web site will present audio of each poet's work Calling Natasha Trethewey Mexico 1969 Why not make a fiction of the mind's fictions I want to say it begins like this the trip a pilgrimage my mother kneeling at the altar of the Black Virgin enthralled light streaming in a window the sun at her back holy water in a bowl she must have touched What's left is palimpsest one memory bleeding into another overwriting it How else to explain what remains The sound of water in a basin I know is white the sun behind her light streaming in her face as if she were already dead blurred as it will become I want to imagine her before the altar rising to meet us my father lifting me toward her outstretched arms What else to make of the mind's slick confabulations What comes back is the sun's dazzle on a pool's surface light filtered through water closing over my head my mother her body between me and the high sun a corona of light around her face Why not call it a vision What I know is this I was drowning and saw a dark Madonna someone pulled me through the water's bright ceiling and I rose initiate from one life into another

Poetics Journal, 1986     The Whalen Poem William Corbett, 2011 In a tribute to the poet he calls the master Corbett has written a book-length poem that combines the widest range of highly specific things in the world with the deepest look at the internal world of the writer Provided by publisher     A Day Like Any Other Nathan Kernan, 2025-08-05 The long-awaited biography of the mercurial troubled brilliant poet James Schuyler the Pulitzer Prize winner who helped shape the New York School of poetry in the 1960s Nathan Kernan's A Day Like Any Other: The Life of James Schuyler is the definitive biography of the great American poet who along with Frank O'Hara Barbara Guest John Ashbery and Kenneth Koch was an original member of the so-called New York School of poetry Opening with Schuyler's legendary first public reading in 1988 Kernan goes back to trace the tumultuous arc of the poet's life and work Born in Chicago in 1923 James Schuyler grew up in Washington DC and upstate New York before moving to New York City in 1944 where he fell into the social orbit of the poet W.H. Auden After two years in Italy he returned to New York in 1949 and began to publish his first poems There he met fellow poets O'Hara Ashbery Guest and Koch For many years he lived outside the city in Southampton Long Island in a close relationship with the painter Fairfield Porter and his family and spent his summers in Maine Schuyler's subsequent years in New York City were marked by poverty and mental illness yet it was during this time that he wrote some of his greatest poems After his move to the Chelsea Hotel in 1979 the poet's circumstances began to turn around and when he died much too soon at sixty-seven his life was stable and fulfilled In praise of Schuyler's poetry John Ashbery wrote To reread him is to live as though life were an experience one had just forgotten and been newly awakened to Schuyler's work embodies the quiet beauties of the natural world and the mundane stuff of everyday existence even as his own life was often messy and troubled A Day Like Any Other Kernan's absorbing biographical study explores this and other paradoxes of Schuyler's singular life within the vibrant milieu of mid-century New York's poets and painters     Literature Sven Birkerts, 1993 The new edition of this comprehensive anthology by a well-known literary critic scholar and teacher continues to bring a new awareness of how the world of fiction poetry and drama is expanding in a multicultural global and electronic environment Authors represented include a high proportion of women as well as writers from non-Western cultures and from a variety of American cultural traditions     Books in Print, 1994     Seamus Heaney's American Odyssey Edward J.

O'Shea, 2022-12-30 Seamus Heaney's American Odyssey describes with a new archive of correspondence interviews and working drafts the some 40 years that Seamus Heaney spent in the United States as a teacher lecturer friend and colleague and as an active poet on the reading circuit It is anchored by Heaney's appointments at Berkeley and Harvard but it also follows Heaney's readings on the road at three important points in his career It argues that Heaney was initially receptive to American poetry and culture while his career was still plastic but as he developed more assurance and fame he became much more critical of America as a superpower especially in the military reaction to 9 11 This study emphasizes the heard Heaney as much as the writerly Heaney by listening in on key poetry readings at different times and to recorded but unpublished lectures on American and British poets at Harvard It includes accounts by his creative writing students aspiring poets who testify to his mentoring as well as modeling for them how one can be a poet in the world as he was most strikingly

Harvard Review ,1999      The Poetry Beat Tom Clark,1990 A collection of poet critic Clark's pithy reviews of books by and about modern and contemporary poets most originally published in the San Francisco Chronicle which itself should be thanked for covering the less than mass market poetry beat Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
