Collecting English Watercolours:

Collecting English Watercolours Derek Plint Clifford, 1976      English Watercolours in the Collection of C.F.J. Beausire Walker Art Gallery, 1970      The Spooner Collection of British Watercolours at the Courtauld Institute Gallery Michael Broughton, William Clarke, Courtauld Institute of Art, Joanna Selborne, Courtauld Institute Galleries, 2005 The Spooner Collection of watercolours is one of the finest of its kind featuring all the leading artists of the period 1750-1850. Notable among them are watercolours of the Lake District by John White Abbott and rural scenes by several artists: Gainsborough, Turner, Cozens, Rowlandson, Francis Towne, Samuel Palmer. Architecture dominates the setting in works by Girtin, Cotman and Sandby. The essays accompanying the catalogue discuss outdoor painting and the role of memory in watercolour painting, the connoisseurship and attitudes towards watercolours and give a brief biography of William Wycliffe Spooner himself. This complete catalogue of the collection bequeathed by Spooner to the Courtauld Institute is published on the occasion of a touring exhibition of select works from the collection showing at The Worsworth Trust, Grasmere, The Huntingdon Library, California and the Courtauld Institute Gallery, London, 2005-2006.      British Watercolours from the Oppé Collection Tate Gallery, Anne Lyles, Robin Hamlyn, 1997. Published to accompany exhibition held at the Tate Gallery, 10.9.30.11.1997.      Great British Watercolors Matthew Hargraves, 2007-01-01. Paul Mellon, 1907-1999 assembled one of the world's greatest collections of British drawings and watercolors. In his memoirs he wrote of their beauty and freshness, their immediacy and sureness of technique, their comprehensiveness of subject matter, their vital qualities, their Englishness. This catalogue celebrating the centenary of Mellon's birth features eighty-eight outstanding watercolors from the fifty thousand works of art on paper with which he endowed the Yale Center for British Art. The selection spans the emergence of watercolor painting in the mid-18th century to its apogee in the mid-19th. These works highlight the diversity of British watercolors, showcasing both landscape and figurative works by some of the principal artists working in the medium, including Thomas Gainsborough, Thomas Rowlandson, William Blake and J.M.W. Turner.      English Drawings and Watercolors, from the Collection of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mellon, April 15 - June 20, 1965 Yale University Art Gallery, 1965.      British Watercolours from the John Edward Taylor Collection in the Whitworth Art Gallery, University of Manchester Whitworth Art Gallery, 1973.      English Watercolours and Other Drawings National Gallery of Scotland, Department of Prints and Drawings, 1979.      English Watercolors Graham Reynolds, 1998-04-21. English artists have made a unique contribution to the art of watercolor painting. In no other Western country has this very attractive medium been used so consistently or for works of such stature as in England between 1750 and the present day. In this general survey of the whole period, Graham Reynolds, formerly Keeper of Paintings and of Prints and Drawings at the Victoria and Albert Museum, discusses the paintings of over 100 artists, including the well-known watercolorists such as Cozens, Girtin, Cotman and De Wint, as well as artists who are equally known for their work in other media: Gainsborough, Turner, Constable, Sargent, Henry.

Moore The 140 illustrations 64 in color show the work of these and lesser known artists and reveal the versatility of this medium so the reader will be introduced to its use for illustrative caricature and portraiture as well as to the finest examples of traditional landscape watercolors

A British Watercolours Whitworth Art Gallery, Charles Nugent, 2003-07-25 The Whitworth Gallery founded in 1889 holds one of the finest collections of British watercolours and drawings This is the first book to publish this outstanding group of works in its entirety and provides a fascinating insight into the collection The collection is especially important because of the broad range of artists it encompasses Holdings of Turner and Girtin are particularly significant as are the works by Alexander and John Robert Cozens While the main strength comes from the eighteenth century there are also important nineteenth century entries including famous watercolours by Ford Madox Brown Millais Burne Jones Rossetti and Holman Hunt Combining broad popular appeal with scholarly interest this watercolour collection provides a source of enjoyment to the many collectors of English watercolours The book begins with a brief introduction to the background of the collection followed by each work presented alphabetically by artist Each entry includes a short biography and description followed by listings of other works All 2 500 works are included 2 000 of which are illustrated in black and white and 32 in colour

The Great Age of British Watercolours, 1750-1880 Andrew Wilton, Anne Lyles, Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), National Gallery of Art (U.S.), 1993 The revolution in watercolours of the later eighteenth century and its Victorian aftermath is acknowledged to be one of the greatest triumphs of British art Its effect was to transform the modest tinted drawing of the topographer into a powerful and highly flexible means of expression for some of the Romantic era s greatest artists among them Thomas Girtin J M W Turner and John Constable The painters of the next generation were no less ambitious and the range of subject matter and technical inventiveness that was sustained for much of the Victorian period was to set a standard in watercolour painting that was without equal abroad In this magnificently illustrated survey of the great age of British watercolours Andrew Wilton and Anne Lyles trace the development of attitudes to landscape and to the human figure in the landscape from 1750 to 1880 They show how once the traditional pen and ink drawing and its augmented washes of colour had been abandoned in order to paint directly in watercolours without pen outlines the way was open for the powerful Romantic landscapes of the following decade and beyond many of which were painted in the wild mountainous regions of Wales and Scotland During the nineteenth century as the gilt framed exhibition watercolour began to challenge the long established oil painting in terms of size and in brilliance of colour and effect the range of subject matter was broadened to include scenes of country and town life from every part of Britain and increasingly from the Continent too By mid century the Near East was attracting many of the greatest Victorian watercolourists including J E Lewis David Roberts and Edward Lear Other leading Victorians who regularly worked in watercolour include the Pre Raphaelite painters John Everett Millais and William Holman Hunt and the American born James McNeill Whistler all of whom are included in this book
