Pre-Raphaelites Delaware Art Museum, 1995 Seven young idealists formed the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood in England as a reaction against what they saw as the stylistic pretenses and unworthy subject matter of the art of their day They created an entirely new style of painting that looked back to the romance of medieval chivalry and also documented contemporary Victorian social themes Art Collecting and Middle Class Culture from London to Brighton, 1840-1914 David Adelman, 2024-06-28 This study explores the interplay between money status politics and art collecting in the public and private lives of members of the wealthy trading classes in Brighton during the period 1840-1914 Chapters focus on the collecting practices of five rich and upwardly mobile Victorians William Coningham 1815-84 Henry Hill 1813-82 Henry Willett 1823-1905 and Harriet Trist 1816-96 and her husband John Hamilton Trist 1812-91 The book examines the relationship between the wealth of these would be members of the Brighton bourgeoisie and the social and political meanings of their art collections paid for out of fortunes made from sugar tailoring beer and wine It explores their luxury lifestyles and civic activities including the making of Brighton museum and art gallery which reflected a paradoxical mix of

Pre-Raphaelites Tim Barringer,2017-07-05 This vibrant collection of essays claims that a complex network of texts by critics biographers and diarists established the credibility and influence of the Pre Raphaelite movement Throughout the twentieth century Modernist taste failed to acknowledge the achievement of oppositional groupings such as the Pre Raphaelites The essays collected here however reveal that the British group anticipated later avant gardes by using the written word to configure for itself a radical artistic identity Public and critics alike were scandalized by the radicalism of Pre Raphaelite painting its unflinching portrayal of historical figures and of contemporary life and its irreverent attitude to artistic convention Pre Raphaelitism s innovations were not confined to style new forms of artistic identity and behaviour were explored As the contributors interrogate the texts through which Pre Raphaelitism was constructed they demonstrate that the movement's wide influence as a cultural phenomenon derived from the interplay between exhibited works and critical discourse Applying a range of sophisticated methodologies from the fields of literary studies art history and cultural studies these interdisciplinary essays uncover the neglected role of texts in the success of the Pre Raphaelite rebellion and argue in favor of a new centrality for this movement in the history of nineteenth century European culture The Collected Essays and Criticism, Volume 1 Clement Greenberg, 1986 Clement Greenberg is widely recognized as the most influential and articulate champion of modernism during its American ascendancy after World War II the period largely covered by these highly acclaimed volumes of The Collected Essays and Criticism Volume 3 Affirmations and Refusals presents Greenberg's writings from the period between 1950 and 1956 while Volume 4 Modernism with a Vengeance gathers essays and criticism of the years 1957 to 1969 The 120 works range from little known pieces originally appearing in Vogue and Harper's Bazaar to such celebrated essays as The Plight of Our Culture 1953 Modernist Painting 1960 and Post Painterly Abstraction 1964 Preserved in their original form these writings allow readers to witness the development and direction of Greenberg's criticism from his advocacy of abstract expressionism to his enthusiasm for color field painting With the inclusion of critical exchanges between Greenberg and F R Leavis Fairfield Porter Thomas B Hess Herbert Read Max Kozloff and Robert Goldwater these volumes are essential sources in the ongoing debate over modern art Visions of Love and Life Stephen Wildman, Jan Marsh, John Christian, 1995 The Pre-Raphaelites Andrea Rose, 1981 Pre-Raphaelites Re-viewed Marcia R. Pointon, 1989 The Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood formed in 1848 by the young Millais Holman Hunt and Rossetti has long been recognised as a high point in Victorian artistic production But whilst we know much of the private lives of Pre Raphaelite artists and writers and their best known paintings are very familiar their work and particularly their visual imagery has attracted limited attention from art historians and critical theorists This collection redresses the situation with a series of detailed critical and historical studies of individual issues and productions artistic and literary relative to Pre Raphaelitism Using rigorous new critical analysis the book throws new light on the ways in which the Pre Raphaelites addressed philosophical religious political and social questions It will be essential reading for all students of Victorian art literature and ideas Back cover Beauty's Awakening National Gallery of Canada, Dennis T. Lanigan, Sonia Del Re, Christopher Newall, 2015 Encompassing the entire Victorian era this exhibition charts the broad evolution of British draftsmanship and illustrates the new appreciation developed for the art of drawing during the reign of Queen Victoria from 1837 to 1901 While inviting contemplation of artists operating within the Aesthetic Movement and the Arts and Crafts Movement the exhibition highlights the work of Pre Raphaelite geniuses Edward Burne Jones John Everett Millais William Holman Hunt and Dante Gabriel Rossetti as well as that of Academic champions Edward Poynter and Frederic Leighton Through its range of subject matter techniques and functions from preparatory sketches to highly finished drawings intended as works of art in and of themselves Beauty's Awakening expresses the richness diversity and flair of Victorian draftsmanship as seen through the eyes of a discerning collector <http://www.gallery.ca> Ruskin: Arrows of the chase. Peat, John Herron Art Museum (Indianapolis, Ind.), Gallery of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), Art Association of Indianapolis, 1964 The Collected Works of Walter Pater, Volume I, 2025-11-27

Walter Pater's first book Studies in the History of the Renaissance 1873 is a landmark in Victorian intellectual and cultural history. The first book length study of the Renaissance by a British writer it was also described as the golden book of British aestheticism by Oscar Wilde. Following its sensational debut Pater oversaw three further editions under a new title The Renaissance: Studies in Art and Poetry. The book's dynamic textual history describes indeed precipitates a fast moving journey from high Victorian intellectualism towards decadence. This edition based on the fourth edition 1893 recovers the book's exciting cultural context in its twenty five year evolution from periodical articles into one of the period's most influential volumes. With kaleidoscopic interests and an inquiring speculative intelligence Pater was steeped in the cultural and intellectual life of his age responding creatively to what he read and saw to envisage new ways of engaging with the world. This edition reveals Pater's interests in contemporary arts and aesthetics cutting edge science and emerging social sciences and how these contributed to his radical revisioning of the history of the Renaissance. Responses to quattrocento artists are shot through with references to the art and literature of his own time even Pater's most lyrical passages echo his reading in Victorian anthropology psychology and geomorphology. The Renaissance offered sensual enjoyments that transformed and re-enchanted the experience of modernity. Its arresting account of paintings sculptures and literature elevated intensity of experience as the goal of life while remaking the reputations of artists like Botticelli and Leonardo. This edition connects Pater's experience of Renaissance art to the temper of his own time both directly beginning with his first visit to Italy in 1865 and indirectly through the work of the Pre-Raphaelites in whose circle he moved and who like him mediated the Renaissance to the modern world. Generously illustrated it captures Pater's articulation of art and ideas now fundamental to western thought.
