Albert John Walford

Collins Guide To Parish Churches Of England And Wales:

Sir John Betjeman's Guide to English Parish Churches John Betjeman, 1993 First published in 1958 the Collins Guide to English Parish Churches edited by John Betjeman won its way into the hearts of all those who love the churches of Collins Guide to Parish Churches of England and Wales Including the Isle of Man John England and Wales England's Other Cathedrals Paul Jeffery, 2012-03-05 England's great cathedrals are widely Betjeman, 1980-01-01 considered to be the country's finest and most beautiful possessions Few people realise however that in addition to these famous buildings there are many others that share or once shared some of that greatness These other cathedrals have very varied origins There were cathedrals established in Anglo Saxon times that subsequently lost that status Further cathedrals founded after the Norman Conquest also later ceased Henry VIII had plans to elevate many great monastic churches to cathedral status but most were unfulfilled From the nineteenth century onwards many new cathedrals have been created both by the Church of England and by other Churches Altogether eight groups are discussed containing in total well over a hundred buildings Most are fine and many are or were in their size and magnificence fully comparable with the great cathedrals themselves Some today stand complete and glorious Others are now mutilated or in ruin Some have been completely destroyed but even these may stir us by their lost glories Paul Jeffery explores the often fascinating episodes of history that lie behind these groups of magnificent and frequently forgotten buildings The spotlight is then turned on each one revealing many architectural and historical treasures Catalog of the Avery Memorial Architectural Library of Columbia University. 2d Ed., Enl Avery Library, 1968 The Art of the Sublime Roger Homan, 2006-01-01 In the view of Hegel and others pagan art is the art of the beautiful and Christian art is the art of the sublime Roger Homan provides a comprehensive and informative account of the course of Christian art encompassing a re evaluation of conventional aesthetics and its application to religious art Homan argues that taste and aesthetics are fashioned by morality and belief and that Christian art must be assessed not in terms of its place in the history of art but of its place in Christian faith The narrative basis of Christian art is documented but religious art is also explored as the expression of the devout and as an element in the trappings of collective expression and personal quest Sections in the book explore pilgrimage art puritan art the tension of Gothic and Classical church architecture and the language of worship Current areas of debate including the relationship of ethics to the appreciation of art are also discussed John Betjeman William S. Peterson, 2006 Sir John Betjeman 1906 1984 Poet Laureate was probably the most widely read English poet of the twentieth century Because of his frequent appearances on radio and television and his fervent devotion to the preservation of England's architectural heritage his face and voice became familiar to millions Few other poets of any century have had such a powerful influence on their contemporaries This bibliography lists and describes all of his known writings including his own books ephemera contributions to periodicals and to books by others lectures and radio and television programmes Other categories such as editorships music settings and dramatic adaptations of his poems recordings and interviews are also included as well as a section devoted to writings about him Manuscripts and drafts of all his works are described in detail This enormous body of material is thoroughly indexed cross referenced and in most cases annotated Now at last the activities of this remarkable man both a poet and a cultural phenomenon can be seen in their full breadth and complexity Walford's Concise Guide to Reference Material Albert John Walford, 1992 This is a shortened version of the three volume Walford's Guide to Reference Material 5th edition Volume 1 Science and Technology 1989 Volume 2 Social and historical sciences philosophy and religion 1990 and Volume 3 Generalia language and literature the arts 1991 There are more than 3 000 entries forming an updated compilation of what are considered to be the basic items in the main volumes plus some more recent material up Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Generalia, language and literature, the arts Albert John Walford, 1998 From its first edition the purpose of Walford has been to identify and evaluate the widest possible range of reference materials No rigid definition of reference is applied In addition to the expected bibliographies indexes dictionaries encyclopaedias and directories a number of important textbooks and manuals of general practice are included While the majority of the items are books Walford is a guide to reference material Thus periodical articles microforms online and CD ROM sources are all represented In this volume a particular effort has been made to improve coverage of the latter two The Baptismal Font Canopy of St. Peter Mancroft, Norwich, 2023-10-16 The early 16th century baptismal font categories canopy of the church of St Peter Mancroft Norwich is one of only three such structures to survive anywhere in the British Isles This study inspired by the recent rediscovery of four attributable panels at the Philadelphia Museum of Art offers a trans temporal account of the canopy s initial creation and subsequent use mutilation and modification Written by a team of scholars in art architectural history art conservation heritage documentation literary studies and museum curation it explores the installation s multiple artistic ritual and cultural contexts from late medieval and early modern Europe to modern day North America Contributors are Benjamin Baaske Sarah Blick Kate Duffy Brent R Fortenberry Amy Gillette Jack Hinton Lesley Milner Peggy Olley Ellen K Rentz Behrooz Salimnejad Zachary Stewart Achim Timmermann Charles Tracy Kim Woods and Lucy Wrapson Black's Guide to England and Wales Adam and Charles Black (Firm), 1874 Black's Guide to England and Wales ...
