Syntactic Analysis and Description David Lockwood, 2005-12-07 This book is designed to teach undergraduate and beginning graduate students how to understand analyse and describe syntactic phenomena in different languages The book covers every aspect of syntax from the basics to more specialised topics such as clitics which have grammatical importance but cannot be used in isolation and negation in which a construction contradicts the meaning of a sentence The approach taken combines concepts from different theoretical schools which view syntax differently These include M A K Halliday's systemic functional linguistics the stratificational school advocated by Sydney Lamb and Kenneth L Pike's tagmemic model The emphasis of the book is on syntactic structures rather than linguistic meaning and the book stresses the difference between a well formed sentence and a meaningful one The final chapter brings these two aspects together to show the connections between syntax and semantics Each chapter concludes with exercises from a diverse range of languages and a list of major technical terms The book also includes a glossary as an essential resource for students approaching this difficult subject for the first time Borneo Tamara Thiessen, 2016-01-05 From the steamy highlands and sapphire watered islands of Sabah and Sarawak to the mesmerising mosques and mysticism of the Sultanate of Brunei the island of Borneo is a wonder world of colourful tribal cultures exotic rainforest creatures Straddling the Equator and swept in by various Seas and Straits it is home to the orang utan long nosed beer bellied proboscis monkeys and otherworldly carnivorous plants straight out of Lord of the Rings The latest edition of the Bradt Travel Guide to Borneo provides fully updated insider information for touring the island including regional capitals rural outposts and National Parks Topicalization in Asian Englishes Sven Leuckert, 2019-01-10 Shortlisted for the 2020 ESSE Book Award in English Language and Linguistics This monograph is the first comprehensive study of topicalization in Asian second language varieties of English and provides an in depth analysis of the forms functions and frequencies of topicalization in four Asian Englishes Topicalization that is the sentence initial placement of constituents other than the subject has been found to occur frequently in the English spoken by many Asians but so far the possible reasons for this have never been scrutinized This book closes this research gap by taking into account the structures of the major contact languages the roles of second language acquisition and politeness as well as other factors in order to explain why topicalization is highly frequent in some varieties such as Indian English and much less frequent in other varieties such as Hong Kong English In addition to exploring major and minor forces involved in explaining the frequency of topicalization the forms and functions of the feature are assessed Central questions addressed in this regard are the following Which syntactic constituents tend to be topicalized the most and the least frequently Which discourse effects does topicalization achieve How can we approach topicalization methodologically And lastly which influence do language processing and production have on topicalization
