Public Relations Writing James Mahoney, 2025-03-31 Public Relations Writing is an undergraduate communication and public relations textbook. It positions writing for public relations in the context of strategic planning and is based on traditional communication writing principles including for news and digital media. The book illustrates how writing for all public relations tools reflects the concepts that inform professional planning and practice. This book, based on the author's wide professional practice and tertiary teaching experiences, has been widely used in international undergraduate teaching and learning. This fourth edition continues to treat clear, concise and accurate writing for this profession as integral to all aspects of professional practice and as a skill that is not confined to media release writing. Among the book's strengths are the student exercises including international cases which are based on real world examples and references to ethical practice. This book provides a holistic approach to learning about writing in this profession. While its focus is on writing, this holistic approach which includes material on planning a communication strategy makes it an ideal text for introductory subjects at university as well as for specialist writing units. While it is primarily grounded in Australian practice, the book is written in line with accepted international approaches to public relations writing including the principles of journalism's news writing and contains case studies from other countries. This book appeals to audiences in early year university students studying public relations and marketing communication. It is also suitable for professional practitioners seeking to enhance their writing skills.

Stories of Hope Sandra Abegglen, Tom Burns, Richard F. Heller, Rajan Madhok, Fabian Neuhaus, John Sandars, Sandra Sinfield, Upasana Gitanjali Singh, 2025-07-02 Higher education is in crisis. Students are disengaged, lecturers are burned out and universities seem more preoccupied with rankings and revenue than with knowledge and wellbeing. But rather than dwell on the problems, this book focuses on solutions on hope. Bringing together a diverse range of educators and practitioners, this collection showcases real world innovations that challenge the status quo and offer glimpses of a more humane and inspiring educational future. From rethinking systems and curriculum design to fostering imaginative collaboration and exploring the role of technology, the book highlights practical, hopeful interventions that are already making a difference. This is not a manifesto of complaints but an invitation to reimagine education. The contributors offer fresh perspectives from around the world illustrating how small but meaningful changes can transform learning spaces, empower educators and inspire students. For academics, teachers, administrators and anyone invested in the future of education this book serves as both a source of inspiration and a call to action It is an evolving ecosystem of ideas grounded in practice rich with possibility and rooted in radical hope Now is the time to create the change we wish to see The Public Speaking Playbook Teri Kwal Gamble, Michael W.
