Classicism Is Not A Style An Architectural Design Profile:

Classical and Modern Interactions Karl Galinsky, 2010-07-22 Postmodernism multiculturalism the alleged decline of the United States deconstruction leadership and values these topics have been at the forefront of contemporary intellectual and cultural debate and are likely to remain so for the near future Participants in the debate can usefully enlarge the perspective to a comparison between the Greco Roman world and contemporary society In this thought provoking work a noted classics scholar tests the ancient modern comparison showing what it can add to the contemporary debates and what its limitations are Writing for intellectually adventurous readers Galinsky explores Greece and Rome as multicultural societies debates the merits of classicism in postmodern architecture discusses the reign of Augustus in terms of modern leadership theories and investigates the modern obsession with finding parallels between the supposed decline and fall of Rome and the decay of U S society Within these discussions Galinsky shows the continuing vitality of the classical tradition in the contemporary world The Greek and Roman civilizations have provided us not only with models for conscious adaptation but also points for radical departures This ability to change and innovate from classical models is crucial Galinsky maintains It creates a reciprocal process whereby contemporary issues are projected into the past while aspects of the ancient world are redefined in terms of current approaches These essays result in a balanced assessment and stimulating restatement of some major issues in both contemporary U S society and the Greco Roman world The book which speaks to a wide interdisciplinary audience is based on a series of lectures that Galinsky gave as a national visiting scholar for Phi Beta Kappa It concludes with a discussion of the role of classical studies in the United States today

Mediated Messages Véronique Patteeuw, Léa-Catherine Szacka, 2018-06-14 Mediated Messages presents a collection of original writing exploring the role played by the media in the development of postmodern architecture in the 1970s and 80s The book s twelve chapters and case studies examine a range of contemporary periodicals and exhibitions to explore their role in the postmodern This focus on mediation as a key feature of architectural post modernism and the recognition that post modernism grew out of developments in the media opens up the possibility of an important new account of post modernism distinct from existing narratives Accompanied by a contextualizing introduction the essays are arranged across four thematic sections covering images international postmodernisms high and low culture and postmodern architects as theorists and present a range of case studies with a genuinely international scope Altogether this work makes a substantial contribution to the historical account of architectural postmodernism and will be of great interest to researchers in postmodernism as well as those examining the role of the media in architectural history

The New Paradigm in Architecture Charles Jencks, 2002-01-01 This book explores the broad issue of Postmodernism and tells the story of the movement that has changed the face of architecture over the last forty years In this completely rewritten edition of his seminal work Charles Jencks brings the history of architecture up to date and shows how demands for a new and complex architecture aided by computer design

Stern, Raymond Gastil, 1988 Multiform Owen Hopkins, Erin McKellar, 2021-02-23 Guest edited by Owen Hopkins and Erin McKellar Our current moment is one of profound political and economic change Historically these moments of transition have seen a parallel period of cultural and notably architectural flux In the late 1970s this was manifested in Postmodernism Today a number of architects are looking again at this movement and redeploying a range of its tactics and approaches using contemporary methods and techniques These include different modes of collage formal reference and quotation stylistic eclecticism symbolism in form material and ornament and the bold expressive use of colour both natural and synthetic While the design that results from these multiform tactics and approaches has been seen as a kind of neo Postmodernism this issue argues that this is a simplistic and superficial reading Instead it posits this phenomenon as the architectural attempt both conscious and unconscious to reflect grapple with and make sense of the current political and economic transition and the backdrop of the climate emergency Rather than responding to this situation by attempting to marshal architecture around a single unifying narrative this issue makes the case for the transformative possibilities offered by an approach that is ad hoc eclectic and pluralist Contributors Mat Barnes Jennifer Bonner Graham Burn James Crawford and Alexander Turner Mario Carpo David Knight and Cristina Monteiro David Kohn Stephen Parnell Lera Samovich Geoff Shearcroft Dirk Somers Catrina Stewart and Hugh McEwen L a Catherine Szacka and Amin Taha Featured architects AOC Architecture Bovenbouw Architectuur CAN Groupwork David Kohn Architects DK CM Fala Atelier MALL Studio MUTT Office S M Walala Studio Yinka Ilori Studio Design Book Review, 1994 The Application of Classicism in Architecture, 1984 Architecture Reading Lists and Course Outlines: Architectural theory and criticism, Urban design theory, Architectural history Georgia Bizios, 1991 Classicism is Not a Style Demetri Porphyrios, A. Papadakis, 1982 From Introduction The narrative of recent architecture tells how Post Modernism was born to disreputable Modernist parents left home and took to the road how he went to Shingle style and Neo Corbusian American how he served in the household of Late Modernism and how after more adventures such as the short lived affairs he had with Queen Anne Revival and Collegiate Gothic he returned to a Classicism that was to be qualified as Free style The Theory of Architecture Paul-Alan Johnson, 1994 This jargon free guide to design and architecture theory helps professionals engage in the discourse of where and what architecture is and has been Architecture Series: Bibliography, 1984 The Language of Post-modern Architecture Charles Jencks, 1991 A classic account which when written in 1977 was the first to define post modernism in architecture an event which led to subsequent adoption of the term in many other fields It is the story of the failure of modern architecture to communicate with its users and the attempt of post modernists to overcome this failure with a richer more widely shared language post modern classicism This edition 5th in 1987 brings the account and the great illustrations up to date 101 4x121 2 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc
