Choices in Relationships David Knox, Caroline Schacht, I. Joyce Chang, 2023-05-09 Choices in Relationships takes readers through the lifespan of relationships marriages and families and utilizes research to help them make deliberate informed choices in their interpersonal relationships Drawing on extensive research authors David Knox Caroline Schacht and I Joyce Chang challenge students to think critically about the choice making process consider the consequences involved with choices view situations in a positive light and understand that not making a choice is a choice after all The Fourteenth Edition features over 1000 new citations increased emphasis and discussion of diversity and inclusion throughout each chapter and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on individuals couples and families Social Media for Strategic Communication Karen Freberg, 2025-07-30 Social Media for Strategic Communication Creative Strategies and Research Based Applications teaches students the skills and principles needed to use social media in persuasive communication campaigns Author Karen Freberg combines cutting edge research with practical hands on instruction to prepare students for the challenges of today's workplace With an emphasis on strategic thinking and awareness the book equips students to adapt their skills to emerging platforms and technologies Its broad focus on strategic communication from PR advertising and marketing to non profit advocacy provides a comprehensive foundation for success in diverse career paths The Third Edition features a brand new chapter on social media and crisis communication discussion of AI integrated in each chapter and new case studies in addition to updated coverage of changes to platforms trends strategies and emerging challenges across social media The Spatial and Economic Transformation of Mountain Regions Manfred Perlik, 2019-01-03 Mountain regions are subject to a unique set of economic pressures they act as collective enterprises which have to valorize rare resources such as spectacular landscapes While primarily rural in nature they often border large cities and the development of industries such as hydroelectric power and the rapid development of tourism can bring about sweeping socio economic change and vast demographic alterations The Spatial and Economic Transformation of Mountain Regions describes the socio economic changes and spatial impacts of the last four decades with the transformation of mountain areas held up as an example Much of the real world context draws on the Alps spanning as they do the significant economies of France Italy Germany Switzerland and Austria Chapters address academic discourse on regional development in these mountain areas and suggest alternative approaches to the liberal productivist societal model This book will be essential reading for professionals institutions and NGOs searching for counter models to the existing marketing approaches for peripheral areas It will also be of interest to students of regional development economic geography environmental studies and industrial economics

Re-thinking Mediations of Post-truth Politics and Trust Jayson Harsin, 2023-12-29 This collection reaches beyond fake news and propaganda misinformation and charismatic liars to explore the lesser publicized cultural forms and practices that serve as a cultural infrastructure for post truth society and politics Situating post truth in specific contexts as a site of contestation or crisis the book critically explores it as a dynamic and shifting site around which political and cultural practices in specific contexts revolve and overlap Through a breadth of perspectives the volume considers a number of overlapping cultural and political developments across varying national and transnational contexts changing technologies and practices of cultural production that sometimes shift and at other times reproduce authority of traditional institutional truth tellers seismic cultural changes in representations values and roles regarding gender sexuality race and historical memory about them as well as corresponding reactionary discourses in the culture wars questions of authenticity honesty and power relations that combine many of the former shifts within an all encompassing culture of self promotional attentional capitalism These considerations lead scholars to focus on corresponding shifting cultural dynamics of popular truth telling and dis trust making that inform political culture In this more global view post truth becomes foremost an influentially anxious public mood about the struggles to secure or undermine publicly accepted facts This nuanced and insightful collection will interest scholars and students of communication studies media and cultural studies media ethics journalism media literacy sociology anthropology philosophy and politics
