Mary, Mother and Warrior Linda B. Hall, 2009-09-17 A Mother who nurtures empathizes and heals a Warrior who defends empowers and resists oppression the Virgin Mary plays many roles for the peoples of Spain and Spanish speaking America Devotion to the Virgin inspired and sustained medieval and Renaissance Spaniards as they liberated Spain from the Moors and set about the conquest of the New World Devotion to the Virgin still inspires and sustains millions of believers today throughout the Americas This wide ranging and highly readable book explores the veneration of the Virgin Mary in Spain and the Americas from the colonial period to the present Linda Hall begins the story in Spain and follows it through the conquest and colonization of the New World with a special focus on Mexico and the Andean highlands in Peru and Bolivia where Marian devotion became combined with indigenous beliefs and rituals Moving into the nineteenth century Hall looks at national cults of the Virgin in Mexico Bolivia and Argentina which were tied to independence movements In the twentieth century she examines how Eva Per n linked herself with Mary in the popular imagination visits contemporary festivals with significant Marian content in Spain Peru and Mexico and considers how Latinos as in the United States draw on Marian devotion to maintain familial and cultural ties

Global Voice #21 Council on Business & Society, Welcome to Global Voice magazine 21 Out of the Tin Can This spring issue of the Council on Business Society s quarterly magazine contains 96 pages of research and opinion based articles featured in two sections Business Society and Leadership Management We re delighted to include a special double page dedicated to two new CoBS Deans Dean Lee Newman and Dean Yu Sakasume having respectively taken up their functions at leading member institutions IE Business School Spain and Keio Business School Japan This issue s Editorial also features a spotlight on the unique value case studies bring to the learning experience co authored by Richard McCracken Director of The Case Centre the world s leading independent home of the case method and Prof Adrian Zicari of the Council on Business Society A wry and playful glance at business buzz words and maybe even the state of our hectic modern society is included in our double page cartoon penned by Tom Gamble of the CoBS and illustrated by Matthieu Anziani of ESSEC Business School And as usual hats off to the superb Global Voice graphic design by CoBS Head of Design M lissa Guillou Faculty practitioner and student articles provide the bread and butter of this issue with topics covering big data and customer value how to manage remote working designing mentorship programmes TechForGood greening up supply chains with circular economy strategy non financial social and environmental disclosure and a spotlight on smart cities in Japan

among others And lastly you may ask why this issue carries the subtitle Out of the Tin Can The temptation is to say that it s up to you to interpret it for there are many interpretations possible Some of these might point to the David Bowie classic Space Oddity and the fact that at last many of us in our societies are once again able to step out of the confinement imposed by the pandemic to breath freely again Another interpretation hand in hand with the snappy front cover image might refer to Andy Warhol s iconic pop art consumerism or simply the tastiness of the contents the tin cans hold a little like the insights in this magazine if I dare say And lastly the shades of green to the cans give the message that our consuming society might well contain a new and more responsible sustainable taste to it In any case we hope you download this Global Voice 21 issue open it up and consume its insights with immoderation Enjoy your reading
