You belong in this world of computer science education and because of you, adults of the future will understand how to responsibly participate in high tech environments with confidence. Districts, cities and states are moving toward computer science requirements for all K-12 classrooms, even in courses that were not previously associated with technology. These new requirements leave many teachers feeling anxious and unprepared when it comes to integrating computer science into existing curriculum. This book is here to support educators in that shift by inviting them to explore computer science and coding in an approachable and unthreatening way. Let's All Teach Computer Science K-12 is a source of inspiration and empowerment for educators who are moving into this technological wonderland. Kiki Prottzman has more than 15 years of experience in computer science education and her insight informs thoughtful discussions on promoting creativity, problem solving and collaboration in students. The book positions computer science in a way that supports other essential skills such as reading, writing and mathematics by providing customizable frameworks that help to seamlessly integrate computer science into core subjects. This book provides powerful insights for creating innovative and inclusive learning environments. Offers practical examples of integrating computer science into traditional subjects like math, history, art and more. Highlights the importance of addressing implicit biases and promoting computer science as an inclusive field for all students. Includes insights on classroom technology and educational technology as well as AI and its role in education. Encourages educators to work together to nurture digital innovators while recognizing potential challenges and frustrations. Let's All Teach Computer Science is an essential guide that equips K-12 teachers with the knowledge and tools necessary to begin teaching computer science immediately and does so in an enjoyable way thanks to Prottzman's friendly and playful style.      Navigating Computer Science Education in the 21st Century Bosch, Chantelle, Goosen, Leila, Chetty, Jacqui, 2024-02-26
