Cambridge Companion To Proust:

The Cambridge Companion to Proust Richard Bales, 2001-06-14 The Cambridge Companion to Proust first published in 2001 aims to provide a broad account of the major features of Marcel Proust's great work A la recherche du temps perdu 1913-27. The specially commissioned essays by acknowledged experts on Proust address a wide range of issues relating to his work. Progressing from background and biographical material, the chapters investigate such essential areas as the composition of the novel, its social dimension, the language in which it is couched, its intellectual parameters, its humour, its analytical profundity, and its wide appeal and influence. Particular emphasis is placed on illustrating the discussion of issues by frequent recourse to textual quotation in both French and English and close analysis. This is the only contributory volume of its kind on Proust currently available. Together with its supportive material, a detailed chronology and bibliography, it will be of interest to scholars and students alike.

Proust's In Search of Lost Time Katherine L. Elkins, 2023 With the story of a madeleine dipped in tea, Marcel Proust makes famous moments that transport one to an earlier time, thought lost forever. His In Search of Lost Time announces a quest narrative with lost time as its goal. We follow the journey of a young man as he strives to become the writer he longs to be, and his journey entails discovering a sense of self in which past and present intertwine. The narrator is delayed in his goal by various digressions, including journeys into the worlds of the salons and of art. For this reason, the novel offers far more avenues for philosophical reflection than simply a meditation on time and identity. In Search of Lost Time includes reflections on love and jealousy, joy and suffering, the enchantments of art, and the disillusionments of friendship. This volume brings together prominent philosophers and critics to illuminate these many themes. Eight essays treat a wide range of topics, including fiction, biography, temporality, music, love, jealousy, weather, and consciousness. One of the longest and most complex novels ever written, In Search of Lost Time has fascinated philosophers for decades. The contributors in this volume build upon earlier approaches to offer new avenues and directions for philosophical thought.

Reading in Proust's A la recherche Adam Watt, 2009-06-18 Adam Watt's critical study of Proust's A la recherche du temps perdu focuses on the role of the acts of reading depicted in the seminal novel Reading is shown to be a formative and often troubling force in the life of the novel's narrator

Geneviève Straus: A Parisian Life Joyce Block Lazarus, 2017-07-03 Geneviève Straus a Parisian Life is the first biography in English of Geneviève Straus 1849-1926 a Parisian salon hostess and political activist Joyce Block Lazarus explores myths surrounding Straus and offers an account of her life and accomplishments Making use of historical materials including previously unpublished letters Lazarus shows that Straus was a female intellectual during an era when women were non citizens Scholars have well documented the Dreyfus Affair 1894-1906 but have overlooked archival documents which spotlight Straus's role as a political activist in the affair In Geneviève Straus a Parisian Life Lazarus highlights Straus's thirty-four year friendship with Marcel Proust and examines her influence on Proust's novel In Search of Lost Time finding echoes of Straus and her family in his masterpiece

Proust's Snobs, Inverts, and Jews Adeline Soldin, 2025-03-06 An intersectional investigation of identity formation in Marcel Proust's magnum opus As metonyms for broader categories such as class sexuality and ethnicity the three most discussed identity groups in Proust's la Recherche du Temps Perdu snobs inverts and Jews prove to be deeply intertwined and perplexing representations Attentive to these interwoven complexities Proust's Snobs Inverts and Jews examines the novelist's exploitation of classification systems as a means to subvert the notion of a fixed identity To illustrate Proust's challenges to a social order that restricts our perceptions of identity Adeline Soldin addresses the inconsistencies and friction surrounding the portrayal of these key figures in his seven volume novel Many scholars have recognized that the narrator's formative journey in La Recherche leads to disillusionment and increased mockery of his fellow characters Soldin contends however that Proust does not merely deride characters behavior but rather interrogates their diverse motivations and tendencies thereby exposing the performative nature of identity Proust's Snobs Inverts and Jews draws on Judith Butler's theories of performativity to illustrate Proust's precocious portrayal of identity in La Recherche as an elusive unattainable idea that characters pursue yet consistently fail to establish Ultimately the enigmatic and anonymous narrator models fluidity and promotes fantasy and imagination to compensate for the limitations imposed on individuals by social and linguistic conventions

Proust's Songbook Jennifer Rushworth, 2024-06-04 In Proust's Songbook Jennifer Rushworth analyzes and theorizes the presence and role of songs in Marcel Proust's novel la recherche du temps perdu In In Search of Lost Time Instead of focusing on instrumental music and large scale forms such as symphonies and opera as is common in Proust musical studies Rushworth argues for the centrality of songs and lyrics in Proust's opus Her work analyzes the ways in which the author inserted songs at key turning points in his novel and how he drew inspiration from contemporary composers and theorists of song Rushworth presents detailed readings of five moments of song in la recherche du temps perdu highlighting the songs significance by paying close attention to their lyrics music composers and histories Rushworth interprets these episodes through theoretical reflections on song and voice drawing particularly from the works of Reynaldo Hahn and Roland Barthes She argues that songs in Proust

s novel are connected and resonate with one another across the different volumes yet also shows how song for Proust is a solo amateur and intimate affair In addition she points to Proust s juxtapositions of songs with meditations on the notion of mauvaise musique bad music to demonstrate the existence of a blurred boundary between songs that are popular and songs that are art According to Rushworth a song for Proust has a special relation to repetition and memory due to its typical brevity and that song itself becomes a mode of resistance in la Recherche especially on the part of characters in the face of family and familial expectations She also defines the songs in Proust s novel as songs of farewell noting that to sing farewell is a means to resist the very parting that is being expressed and demonstrates how songs in formal terms resist the forward impetus of narrative

The Sense of an Interior Diana Fuss,2004-08-02 The Sense of an Interior is a fascinating exploration of domestic space and of the ways it determines how writers work The book looks at four famous figures Emily Dickinson Sigmund Freud Helen Keller and Marcel Proust and examines the relationship between their work and the spaces where they wrote

The Proustian Mind Anna Elsner,Thomas Stern,2022-12-30 When Marcel Proust started to work on In Search of Lost Time in 1908 he wrote this question in his notebook Should I make it a novel a philosophical study am I a novelist Throughout his famous multi volume work Proust directly engages several philosophers and few novels are as thoroughly saturated with philosophical themes and concepts as In Search of Lost Time The Proustian Mind is an outstanding reference source to the rich philosophical range of Proust s work and the first major volume of its kind Including 31 chapters by an international team of contributors the volume is divided into seven clear parts Proust s life and works metaphysics and epistemology mind and language aesthetics ethics gender and sexuality predecessors contemporaries and successors Within these sections key Proustian themes are explored from a philosophical standpoint including time the self memory imagination jealousy beauty love subjectivity and desire The final section considers Proust in relation to important philosophers such as Schopenhauer Nietzsche Bergson Merleau Ponty Sartre de Beauvoir and Deleuze The Proustian Mind is essential reading for those studying aesthetics philosophy of literature phenomenology and ethics and will also be of interest to those in literature studying modernism French literature and the relationship between literature and philosophy

The Still Life in the Fiction of A. S. Byatt Elizabeth Hicks,2010 This book explores the ways in which English writer A S Byatt TM s visual still lifes descriptions of real or imagined artworks and what are termed oeverbal still lifes scenes such as laid tables rooms and market stalls are informed by her veneration of both realism and writing It examines Byatt TM s adoption of the Barthesian concept of textual pleasure showing how her ekphrastic descriptions involve consumption and take time to unfold for the reader thereby highlighting the limitations of painting It also investigates the ways in which Byatt TM s still lifes demonstrate her debts to English modernist author Virginia Woolf French writer Marcel Proust and the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood of nineteenth century Britain A number of Byatt TM s verbal still lifes are read as semiotic markers of her characters particularly with regard to economic status and class Further her descriptions uniting food and sexuality are perceived as part of her overall representation of pleasure Finally Byatt TM s employment of vanitas iconography in many of her portrayals of death is discussed showing how her recurring motif of Keats TM s Ode on a Grecian Urn teases out the still life TM s inherent tension between living passion and oecold artwork
