Calibrations Reading For The Social:

Calibrations Ato Quayson, 2003 Literary Form as Postcolonial Critique Katharine Burkitt, 2016-05-06 Focusing on works by Derek Walcott Les Murray Anne Carson and Bernardine Evaristo Katharine Burkitt investigates the relationship between literary form and textual politics in postcolonial narrative poems and verse novels Burkitt argues that these works disrupt and undermine the traditions of particular forms and genres and most notably the expectations attached to the prose novel poetry and epic This subversion of form Burkitt argues is an important aspect of the texts postcoloniality as they locate themselves critically in relation to literary convention and they are all concerned with matters of social racial and national identities in a world where these categories are inherently complicated In addition the awareness of epic tradition in these texts unites them as post epics in that as they reuse the myths and motifs of a variety of epics they question the status of the form demonstrate it to be inherently malleable and regenerate its stories for the contemporary world As she examines the ways in which postcolonial texts rewrite the traditions of classical epics for the twentieth and twenty first centuries Burkitt ties close textual analysis to a critical intervention in the politics of form The Cambridge Companion to the African Novel F. Abiola Irele, 2009-07-23 Africa's strong tradition of storytelling has long been an expression of an oral narrative culture African writers such as Amos Tutuola Naguib Mahfouz Wole Soyinka and J M Coetzee have adapted these older forms to develop and enhance the genre of the novel in a shift from the oral mode to print Comprehensive in scope these new essays cover the fiction in the European languages from North Africa and Africa south of the Sahara as well as in Arabic They highlight the themes and styles of the African novel through an examination of the works that have either attained canonical status an entire chapter is devoted to the work of Chinua Achebe or can be expected to do so Including a guide to further reading and a chronology this is the ideal starting point for students of African and world literatures Tragedy and Postcolonial Literature Ato Quayson, 2021-01-21 This book examines tragedy and tragic philosophy from the Greeks through Shakespeare to the present day It explores key themes in the links between suffering and ethics through postcolonial literature Ato Quayson reconceives how we think of World literature under the singular and fertile rubric of tragedy He draws from many key works Oedipus Rex Philoctetes Medea Hamlet Macbeth and King Lear to establish the main contours of tragedy Quayson uses Shakespeare's Othello Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka Tayeb Salih Arundhati Roy Toni Morrison Samuel Beckett and J M Coetzee to qualify and expand the purview and terms by which Western tragedy has long been understood Drawing on key texts such as The Poetics and The Nicomachean Ethics and augmenting them with Frantz Fanon and the Akan concept of musuo taboo Quayson formulates a supple insightful new theory of ethical choice and the impediments against it This is a major book from a leading critic in literary studies Writers and Social Thought in Africa Wale Adebaniwi, 2017-10-02 Social theory and social theorizing about Africa has largely ignored African literature However because writers are some of the continent's finest social thinkers they have produced and continue to produce works which constitute potential sources for the analysis of social thought and for constructing social theory in and beyond the continent This comprehensive collection examines the relationship between African literature and African social thought It explores the evolution and aesthetics of social thought in African fiction and African writers conceptions of power and authority legitimacy history and modernity gender and sexuality culture epistemology globalization and change and continuity in Africa This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies Focus on Egypt Ernest Emenyonu, 2017 As well as a rare examination of Egyptian literature this volume includes a non themed section of Featured Articles and a Literary Supplement Comedy and Satire in Zimbabwe Rodwell Makombe, 2025-05-21 The book is about comedy the nation and resistance in Zimbabwe following the fall of Robert Mugabe in 2017 It explores how satiric comedies and comic texts in post Mugabe Zimbabwe contest hegemonic narratives of the nation and authorise alternative narratives from the margins Drawing on postcolonial theories of the nation it analyses subversive comedies and social media texts that contest official political narratives in Zimbabwe including the comedies of four Zimbabwean comedians Kapfupi and Marabha Doc Vikela and Sabhuku Vharazipi as well as social media texts on President Mnangagwa s Facebook Page and cartoons published by the Zimbabwean newspaper ZimDaily Primarily found via social media platforms Facebook and Youtube these texts centre alternative views and narratives of ordinary citizens contesting established truths and providing a counter narration to official hegemonic discourses of the nation Where existing scholarship on post Mugabe politics in Zimbabwe focuses on issues such as the coup militarisation and discourses of newness little attention has been paid to the forms of resistance used in everyday discourse by Zimbabweans and particularly via satire and comedy These comic texts shared by comedians and normal citizens on social media can provide a useful alternative perspective to make sense of the politics and political performances that characterize the new political dispensation after Mugabe Social Text , 2003 Research in African Literatures , 2008 Vol 1 spring 1970 include A Bibliography of American doctoral dissertations on African literature compiled by Nancy J Schmidt Announcement of Courses of Instruction in the Colleges of Letters, Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Commerce, Agriculture, Mechanics, Mining, Civil Engineering, and Chemistry, the Schools of Architecture, Education, and Jurisprudence, and the First and Second Years of the College of Medicine for the Academic Year ... University of California (1868-1952), 1916 Discourse , 2010 Globalization and the Post-Creole Imagination Michaeline Crichtlow, Patricia Marie Northover, 2009-07-07 An interdisciplinary argument that the concept of cultural creolization must be expanded to encompass cultural productions by vulnerable populations living in situations of modern power inequalities anywhere in the world International African Bibliography , 2005 A Current Bibliography on African Affairs , 2005 Bibliographic Index , 2007 Cemeteries of Ambivalent Desire Marie Theresa Hernández, 2008 Growing up as the daughter of a funeral director in Fort Bend County Texas Marie Theresa Hernández was a frequent visitor to the San Isidro Cemetery a burial place for Latino workers at the Imperial Sugar Company based in nearby Sugar Land During these years she acquired from her father and mother a sense of what it was like to live as an ethnic minority in Jim Crow Texas Therefore returning to the cemetery as an ethnographer offered Hern ndez a welcome opportunity to begin piecing together a narrative of the lives and struggles of the Mexican American community that formed her heritage However Hern ndez soon realized that San Isidro contained hidden depths The cemetery was built on the former grounds of an old slave owning plantation Her story quickly burgeoned from one of immigrant laborers working the land of the giant sugar company to one of the slave laborers who had worked the sugar plantations decades before but whose history had been largely wiped out of the narrative of the affluent white majority county Much like an archeologist Hern ndez began carefully brushing away layers of time to reveal the fragile entombed remnants of a complex unknown past A professional photographer as well as a scholar Hern ndez provides visual images to spur the reader s imagination and anchor the narrative in historical reality She mines interviews newspaper accounts and other primary sources interpreted through her own rich sense of place and time to reconstruct the identity of a community where the Old South the wealthy New South and the culture from south of the border all comeingle to form an almost iconic symbol for today s America In this complex and nuanced self reflexive ethnography Hern ndez interweaves personal memory and group history ethnic experience and class even death and life

Fathers & Daughters Ato Quayson, 2008 This book is a first in combining essays from women about their African fathers and vice versa and will not only provide a significant set of insights into the relationship between fathers and daughters but also explore gaps in the perception of African Fatherhood The book opens a window on this often vexing relationship and draws on African experiences that reflect the complexities and nuances of a relationship that is at once universal as it is local Contributors include prominent African scholars writers and critics such as Abiola Irele Simon Gikandi Harry Garuba Helon Habila Leila Aboulela Paul Tiyambe Zeleza Abena Busia et al

Encountering the Nigerian State Ebenezer Obadare, Wale Adebani, 2010-06-15 This volume advances extant reflections on the state constituted as the Ur Power in society particularly in Africa It analyzes how various agents within the Nigerian society encounter the state ranging from the most routine form of contact to the spectacular While many recent collections have reheated the old paradigms of the perils of federalism corruption ethnicity etc our focus here is on encounter that is the nuance and complexity of how the state shapes society and vice versa Through this we depart from the standard state versus society approach that proves so limiting in explaining the African political landscape
