Arabic Script in Motion M. Javad Khajavi,2019-04-12 This book is a pioneering study of temporal typography and time based calligraphic art written in the Arabic system of writing Inspired by the innate qualities of Arabic script as well as certain practices in Islamic calligraphy and contemporary calligraphic art the book devises five broad categories of temporal behaviors for Arabic characters in time based media It goes onto expand the vocabulary used to describe Arabic script s appearance in time based media and proposes a theory to help artists practitioners and theoreticians push the boundaries of temporal text based art Furthermore it tackles questions of legibility and readability and seeks to understand how temporality of Arabic text influences the creation of meaning This book will therefore appeal not only to animators designers and artists but also to commentators and scholars who deal with temporal text based art written in Arabic script

Culture of Letter-Writing in Pre-Modern Islamic Society Adrian Gully,2008-02-07 The Culture of Letter Writing in Pre Modern Islamic Society received an honourable mention from the British Kuwait Friendship Society at BRISMES 2009 Writing letters was an important component of intellectual life in the Middle Islamic period telling us much about the cultural history of pre modern Islamic society This book offers a unique analysis of letter writing focusing on the notion of the power of the pen The author looks at the wider context of epistolography relating it to the power structures of Islamic society in that period He also attempts to identify some of the similarities and differences between Muslim modes of letter writing and those of western cultures One of the strengths of this book is that it is based on a wide range of primary Arabic sources thus reflecting the broader epistemological importance of letter writing in Islamic society
