Cornell University Courses of Study Cornell University,2007 Law and policy in international business ,1997 Business Law in the Global Marketplace Peter Naylor,2011 The study of law forms a component of many undergraduate and postgraduate programs Its inclusion does not aim to equip business practitioners with skill and expertise to render professional legal advice unnecessary but more to provide a legal framework of reference in which both strategic and more immediate business issues can be placed Equipping managers with a basic understanding of how law impacts upon business activity can help them avoid legal pitfalls in the first place or at least identify potential problems at an early stage to avoid inconvenience and cost International business can present problems that are not present in a purely domestic transaction Any law component in a management program should embrace it and by doing so the business practitioner can be familiarized with the wider picture in which modern business aided by technological development is increasingly practiced This book shows the legal dimensions in managerial decisions both nationally and internationally familiarizes the reader with legal issues from a practical business perspective in plain and jargon free language and uses numerous examples to illustrate the legal principles under consideration Global Marketing Management Warren J. Keegan,Fritz Herman Rolf Seringhaus,1998-10 Appropriate for upper level college and university courses in international and global marketing The Second Canadian Edition addresses the need to understand the global marketplace from a Canadian perspective without being ethnocentric It puts into practice the principal tenet of the global marketer benefit from the similarities across diverse markets but heed the differences Bringing a managerial orientation to global marketing the book covers small and large companies alike and takes an analytical approach when necessary Topical Canadian research findings are included to illustrate current management practice and behaviour Current Law Index ,2005 Houston Journal of International Law ,2006 Comparative International Commercial Arbitration Julian D. M. Lew,Loukas A. Mistelis,Stefan Michael Kröll,Stefan Kröll,2003-01-01 This treatise describes the practice of international commercial arbitration with reference to the major international treaties and instruments arbitration rules and national laws It provides an analysis of the interaction between party autonomy and arbitration practice Transnational Rules in International Commercial Arbitration Piero Bernardini,1993 The National Guide to Educational Credit for Training Programs American Council on Education,2005 Highlights over 6 000 educational programs offered by business labor unions schools training suppliers professional and voluntary associations and government agencies International Business Charles W.
