Buttermilk Bloomers And Beaches A California Memoir 18461946:

Buttermilk, Bloomers and Beaches Sharon Stine, 2002-11-01 This memoir paints the journeys of four generations set in motion in 1846 when Sharon's great grandmother Jennie was launched on top of feather beds to begin a covered wagon journey to the West. Jennie's daughter Alice lived in Siam during the reign of Prince Chulalongkorn. Her son Henry searched for gold in Alaska. Sharon's grandfather James sailed clipper ships around the Horn. Her aunt Dorothy was born in San Francisco during the 1906 earthquake. California shaped their pathways. Motion caused them to question their lives. This memoir is about the West Coast before television when families described their own adventures. Sharon grew up listening to the family stories about sailing ships and the Red Car of a baby left in a basket and about cooking rice and curry. Out of these stories emerged this memoir a hundred years of living in California when it was a star struck beach playful place.
